The advisor of each organization determines the number of credits each individual will receive.

Parnassus came into being in the school year 1951-52 as a result of the work of the faculty's Student Welfare committee. Five faculty members were appointed that year and the first Parnassus Outstanding Freshman and Sophomore awards were presented at the Spring Convocation.

Parnassus now has 70 members and 2 honorary members- the latter two were speakers at initiation dinners.

Miss Pearl Garbrick serves as faculty advisor.

The Outstanding Freshman and Sophomore awards mentioned above are presented at Convocation to students deserving this honor. The student body votes for the outstanding student, and, from the 10 highest nominees, the Parnassus members vote for the two recipients, who receive a trophy and have their names engraved on a plaque in the lobby of the main building.
