

TARGET DATE SET FOR STUDENT UNION BUILDING

Construction of the new student union building here at HIGHACRES will begin Saturday, March 15, it was announced at a meeting of the Hazleton Educational Council, an advisory group to this campus.

Edward Keller, director of general extension, and Stan Cambell, in charge of centers, attended the meeting to discuss plans for the building.

R. E. Edmunds, president of the council, turned over to the treasurer the $100 check presented by the Women's Auxiliary of the Center to the council recently.

Edmunds also gave a brief summary of the meeting that he, Atty. Louis G. Feldmann and Frank C. Kostos, administrative head here, attended last weekend.

INSTRUCTORS JUDGE ESSAY CONTEST

A committee consisting of Prof. Frank C. Kostos, Prof. Andrew Kafka, and Miss Lillian Junus recently judged the entries in the Tenth Annual Essay Contest for high school students in the 11th and 12th grades, on "How Hiring the Handicapped Helps You and Me," conducted by the Tri-County Committee on the Employment of the Handicapped in co-operation with the Governor's and the President's Committees.

Following are the winners:
First Prize, $100 U.S. Savings Bond: Michael Knoblauch. (A senior at the Hazleton Senior High School)
Second Prize, $50 U.S. Savings Bond: Jeanne Wackley. (A senior in St. Ann's High School, Freeland)
Third Prize, $25 U.S. Savings Bond: Patricia Phillips. (A senior in Black Creek Township High School)

AUXILIARY SELECTS COMMITTEE

The Women's Auxiliary of Highacres recently named a committee for the annual May Day ceremony here. The meeting was held at the Hazleton Public Library.

Miss Margaret Bellezza is chairman of the committee with Mrs. Victor Diehm, Mrs. LeRoy Hinkle, Mrs. Fred Esher, Paul Ferry, Mrs. John Sippel and Mrs. Frank C. Kostos assisting here.

A definite date for the ceremony has not been decided, Mrs. Elizabeth Bodenstein stated. She reported on the Center's Student Council arrangements for May Day, which is sponsored jointly by Theta Sigma Pi sorority, the Student Council, and the auxiliary.

SORORITY NEWS

Barbara Katchmarik

A meeting of the Theta Sigma Pi sorority was held in the main lounge last Thursday, March 6.

Chairman of the various committees for May Day reported on the program made by their groups; and the date for the May Crowning was definitely set for May 17th. In case of rain, the crowning will take place that evening at the dance, instead of in the afternoon as usual.

Plans for voting for the May Queen which is to be held on Tuesday, March 18th were also discussed. Everyone is urged to get out and vote on that day.

TOTAL ENROLLMENT GIVEN AS 18,029 FOR SPRING SEMESTER

It has been announced at the main campus that a grand total of 18,029 students enrolled for the spring semester at the main campus and at the off-campus facilities.

This figure, released by the office of the Dean of Admissions, compares with 19265 for the fall semester.

The total full-time undergraduate