

CHANGE IN SPRING VACATION

At 4:55 PM Wednesday, April 2, the spring vacation will begin for HIGHACRES students. The vacation will end Tuesday, April 8, at 8:45 AM. On that Tuesday, the regularly scheduled Tuesday classes will be held, but on Wednesday, the 9th, the regular Monday schedule will be used. In this way, the two-day period which was missed a few weeks ago due to inclement weather will be made up.

It's Greek to Me!
From SCHUYLKILL COLLEGIAN

In the study of mathematics and physics every student at one time or another is faced with knowing a part of the letters of the Greek alphabet. Some of the 1 letters of the alphabet are used to refer to different angles in computing an analytical problem. As an aid to the science students of this Center, listed here is the Greek alphabet defined and exemplified.

- ALPHA: half of
Ex.: Alpha pint of cream, please.
- BETA: ought to
Ex.: You beta beat it, kid
- GAMMA: baby for grandma
Ex.: What big teeth you have, gamma.
- DELTA: used in cards
Ex.: He delta hand of pinochle.
- EPSILON: foot bath
Ex.: Go soak yourself in epsilon salts.
- ZETA: to repeat a phrase
Ex.: Zeta again, Virginia Dare.
- ETA: to devour
Ex.: I eta grape.
