

NEWS FROM HERSHEY JUNIOR COLLEGE

IKE ASSASSINATED

It was released by the government yesterday that Ike Smith, local garbage collector, was killed the other day by a flying garbage can. An investigation by the F. B.G.C. (Federal Bureau of Garbage Cans) revealed that it was the plot of an underground movement, in other words the U.S.W. (United Sewer Workers).

It was further disclosed that the garbage consisted of coffee grounds, mashed potatoes, spinach, and rotten apples. This clue led Herbert Hooper to arrest the president of the U.S.W., but the president was in the process of "shooting crap" in the sewers, to "supplement his meager wages." This is what is known as a "floating crap game." However, they finally apprehended him, and after beating him for 36 hours, got a confession. Burial will take place in two days for both men. This is a news release from the United Mess.

FACULTY MEMBER OF THE MONTH

Professor Mamhoff

Prof. Mamhoff teaches biology and other such jazz. He received his master's degree from Johnstown Junior College, and since then has been teaching biology. He has been instructing human biology since 1889, and still enjoys a good dissection: (Failing students often donate a limb for a guaranteed D-.)

His hobbies include: Selling lab supplies at black market prices, keeping students in a state of extreme nervousness, and selling nerve tablets. It is rumored that he uses formaldehyde instead of sugar in his coffee.

He is a member of the following organizations: Anti-American League, Shoplifters, Inc. Mickey Mouse Club, and Black Knights Motorcycle Club.

STUDENT OF THE MONTH

Melvin McMuff is a sophomore who is majoring in garbage collecting, and minoring in dish-washing. He hails from Shantytown, where his ability to shake out dust mops gave him the recognition needed for a scholarship.

Melvin's hobbies include marbles, playing with dolls, and making mud pies. He has a reputation for making excellent snow balls, provided that there's snow.

Last week Melvin scored a 98 per cent in an exam on "The Evolution of the Mop" and also scored a 100 per cent on "How to Handle the '58 Model Garbage Can." At present he sports a 97 average, which he says, "wouldn't be possible if it wasn't for my mother." She is a retired garbage collector.

McMuff's chief gripes are "people who throw the mashed potatoes in the bottom, and "people who eat all their mashed potatoes." His favorite foods are beans and mashed potatoes. He has offers from five major cities to start as chief can emptier, at $40 a week and all he can eat.

A college student was fleecing his old man by telling him he had acquired a talking dog. As the dog became more learned, the son wrote home for more money to further its education. Finally the boy asked for a thousand dollars so the dog could learn to speak French.

Soon the amazed father announced he was coming to see this amazing animal, and the student, in desperation, shot the dog and went to meet his father at the station.

"Well, son, where's the dog?"

"Father, I don't know how to tell you this, but I had to kill him. You see, this morning as I was shaving, he looked up from the newspaper and said, "Is your father still playing around with the maid?"

"My word, are you sure he's dead?"
