

MR. MCGURGAN

Frances Werpshaw

Perhaps you have noticed a new face in the bookstore. For the benefit of those who go to the bookstore and ask eagerly if their books have come in yet, the congenial young man who says no is Mr. McGurgan. Mr. McGurgan, a recent 1958 graduate of Penn State, will be in charge of the new student union when it is completed.

After graduating from North Catholic High in Pittsburg, Mr. McGurgan entered the Marine Corp. He spent 14 months in the Far East Command where he held the position of staff sergeant. Later he entered Penn State where he majored in Hotel Administration.

Mr. McGurgan resides at 332 West Spruce St. in Hazleton with his wife Carmen and his two sons Dennis, aged 20 months, and Michael, 6 weeks.

HIGHACRES NEWEST GAME

Frisby. That's the name of the game that the sophomore boys are playing these days. If you wondered what the boys are throwing around lately that is shaped like a flying saucer, it's called a "frisby".

While attending their summer course at the campus this year, they were introduced to this fascinating college game. For those who haven't seen the game yet, it is played in the garden inside the stone wall. You are welcome to watch at any time.

Lessons will be given on the first Tuesday after the last Monday in October.

"NO NAME" DANCE CANCELLED

I know all you observant people noticed the announcement of a dance to be held in the YWCA tonight. Well, these cool, crazy, confused "No Namers" have done it again. They were laughing so hard they decided not to hold their dance this week. It will be held Oct. 3 instead.

NIGHT TRAIN

The Night Train
Comes Thunderously.

A tumultuous roar
and steel tracks
Break the darkness.

The Black is pierced,
Filled with smoke,
Cut and shattered.

The Night Train rumbles on;
The Night Train
Rumbles on.....
