WITTANY LIONS SLAUGHTER PENN. 43-0.....

The aggregation from University Park showed what they are really capable of doing when they walloped the University of Pennsylvania Quakers 43-0 in a game played at Franklin Field, Philadelphia.

Penn State's senior halfback, Frank Pavlone, opened up the scoring late in the first period with a two yard plunge winding up a 47 yard drive.

Don Jonas followed up with a kick to make it 7-0.

State got two more T. D. 's in the second period by way of Dave Kasperian and Dick Hoak. Kasperian's T. D. was followed up by a quick two points on a pass from quarterback Al Jacks to Bozick.

The onslaught continued as Dave Kasperian, Don Jonas and Jim Kerr each reached paydirt. The remaining extra points were gotten on two passes; one from Jacks to Pavlone and the other from Hoak to Jonas.

Penn was not only held scoreless but also was swamped in the first downs department, 28-8.

The Lions racked up a net of 332 yards as compared to 122 for the Quakers.

The next game will really be a test for State when they oppose one of the best in the East--ARMY.

ELECTIONS COMING UP

Frances Werpshaw

Each year about this time, the bulletin boards here become covered with political campaign signs. Perhaps you will only recognize a name or two (perhaps you won't recognize any), but, nevertheless, exercise your right to choose your own student government.

Voting will take place on Friday, October 10 between the hours of 9:00 and 3:30 in the cottage (the recreation hall). Everyone is cordially invited to vote. The point generally made is that to vote is a duty. Actually, it is a right to be exercised or not to be exercised or not to be exercised by freedom of choice. Choose to vote and gain the pleasure of expressing your preference.

The candidates from the Sophomore class are as follows:

- President.....Jack Sotack
- Student Council.....Al Hinger, R. William D. Burcin, Tom Drusa, Ed. Ecker, Theresa Lesko, Frances Werpshaw
