

BELLES LETTRES LITERARY SOCIETY
MEETS

This, our first meeting, was brought to order by Professor Andrew Kafka, our admirable advisor. Those present were Priscilla Stiles, Dave Saul, Olga Markus, Frances Werpshaw, Barbara Jean Pace, Tom Maxwell, John McCullough, and John Potochny. Officers were elected, and will serve for the first semester.

- President- Olga Markus
- V. President-F. Werpshaw
- Secretary- John McCullough
- Treasurer- Ann Stebnitsky
- Public Relations- Dave Saul

Members ex-officio were counted as Miss Lillian Junas and Mr. James Steel.

Various pamphlets and papers were circulated to give the nucleus of the club a look at the constitution, aims, purposes, and methods considered and accepted by contemporary organizations, both on the main campus and at the auxiliary institutions.

A goal of January 15 was set as the last date for the acceptance of material to be considered by the annual main campus magazine "Circa" Other plans, including trips and co-operation with the College Arts Society .

COLLEGE ARTS MEETS

The HIGHACRES College Arts Society held its first meeting this year Friday, October 17 in room M-213. The turn-out was surprisingly large (approximately 25 persons showed up), promising a very fruitful semester.

The first piece of business taken care of was the election of officers. Following are the officers elected at that time:

- President.....E. Tihansky
- V. President.....Marilyn Houser
- Sec. Treas.....Ann Stebnitsky

The second piece of business discussed was the film program to be presented by the society this year. Five films have been tentatively chosen, but dates for their viewing have not yet been chosen. Definite announcements will soon be made as to the films to be shown and their viewing dates.

The final piece of business discussed was that of the purchase of a work of art to adorn a wall in the new Student Union. Allowances have been made in the budget request for this purchase, and the article, itself, will be chosen later.

ROTC NEWS

Miss Barbara J. Pace

At the first meeting of the Military Ball Committee, held October 1 in Cadet Squadron Headquarters, members were appointed to various committees.

The Orchestra Committee includes the following:

- J.F. Potochny J.A. Sorosky
- P.R. Mulik A.A. Yatsko
- M.P. Markus

Comprising the Miscellaneous Arrangements Committee are:

- M.J. Jacobs E.A. Barrett
- D.J. Saul F.J. Blackmon
- P.E. Wolfe W.T. Shindel

J.J. Nicholson and J.T. Fetterman agreed to be the Ball Photographers

The Ball will be held in the Hotel Altamont in Hazleton on December 30. It will, of course, be formal. Let's see all you cadets shine up your dancing shoes.

Major Richardson along with four have been requested to attend a Lion's dinner meeting November 3rd. The Penn State representatives will explain the R.O.T.C. functions and a movie will be shown. (CONTINUED)