

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL

JC

The following facts were obtained through the courtesy of League President, Sam Zeisloft.

December 4 HAWKS 101--TARHEELS 60

The powerful combination of Hnat, Sarnoski, Meiss, Marcinack and Lettie proved to be far too much for the Tarheels as the Hawks trounced the former 101-60 at the Arthur Street Gym.

Hnat and Sarnoski who turned in 27 and 22 points respectively were good all around performers for the Hawks.

Standouts on defensive for the Hawks were Meiss, Marcinack and Lettie who also canned 17, 17 and 13 points respectively.

Drusa, Ecker and Gabriel were the best bets for the defeated team.

December 11 HAWKS 97--VETS 48

In a very wild game the Hawks again proved their ability as they stomped the Vets 97-48.

Jim Meiss was a real ass in the Hawks' drive for victory as he dropped in 25 points and also turned in some exquisite all around play.

Marcinack, B Sarnoski and Hnat also turned in their usual excellent job as they checked in with 19, 19 and 18 points respectively. McKiniry was high for the Vets with 21.

REBELS 72--PIONEERS 42

The charges of Bill Zarowsky suffered a 72-42 setback at the hands of the Rebels at the Arthur Street Gym. Zarowsky, an advocate of the two platoon system, just couldn't get enough stamina out of his battle-worn and mentally exhausted engineers.

Kochinski, Lilne, and Casari looked good for the Rebels garnering 24, 23, and 17 points respectively.

Antolick led the Pioneers with 18 counters. Other scorers for the Pioneers were Jim Gorch, Bill Zarowsky, Bob Wagner, George Perzel, Bob Krupko, Harry Sanders and John Sorosky.

The winners of the Championship Game, December 18, (Hawks vs. Bootleggers) will oppose the Wilkes-Barre Team on January 8, 1959 at the Arthur Street Gym.

The Penn State Intramural All-Stars, Meiss, Hnat, B. Sarnoski, Marcinack, Sterba, McFadden, Kochinski, Drusa, Radzewich, McKiniry, will play the Girls' Team on January 8, 1959 at Athur Street.

A FOND FAREWELL TO A FEW FAITHFUL WORKERS

At this time the staff of the Collegian, both this year and last, would like to express our appreciation to Mr. Tom Maxwell, our editor, Marilyn Houser and a few more diligent workers who will leave Highacres this semester for the Campus.

It has been a pleasure to contribute our time with these people to publish the paper. All our best wishes for luck and success in the future.

BEST WISHES FROM MR. KOSTOS

With affectionate regards from the Hazleton campus family and best wishes to each and every one of you for a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Frank C. Kostos

It's none of my doing if the floor
Sighs for the sound of your vanished tread,
If the chair wants you back in its arms
once more,
Or the pillow cries to cradle your head,
And ropes on the shelf day after day.
My heart is broken, my sky's gone dark,
Because you've chosen to go your way.
Moon Mullins.
