

Valentine's Day "Exposed"
(by J. A. Bodner)

THE HIGHACRES COLLEGIAN

Hazleton Campus'
Own Newspaper

Editor--Nancy Bradney
Assistant Ed.--F. Sullivan
Asst. Ed.--J. Cappello
Sports Ed.--J. Cataldo
Business Manager--
H. Richard
Secretary--A. Schumacher

Staff Members--

- J. Benner
- E. Miller
- A. Von Berg
- P. Stiles
- B. J. Pace
- A. Hinger
- J. McCullough
- C. Markus

Volume 25, Number 1
February 13, 1959

February 14 is Valentine's Day, a day when a large number of the male portion of our society wake up in the morning intent on proving P. T. Barnum's adage: "There's a sucker born every minute." These men (actually boys, but they've been insulted enough already) go charging in different directions to candy stores, department stores, jewelry stores and 5¢ and 10¢ stores; however, all of them have a common finish--the "cleaners". The real fault does not lie in these young men themselves; they are merely the innocent victims of a system of society that caters without justification to its female members. Although this system is already too far advanced to be changed, at least the young men can be made aware of the fact that they are "being taken".

Greetings From the Office

The students, faculty, and staff offer their best wishes to our new spring-term students. We realize the pace for the spring term is a bit faster than that of the fall term. This is because most of the student body is now composed of "old timers" used to the grind. Therefore, we invite all new students to work closely with faculty and staff to ease the adjustment into an efficient academic routine, in other words, knock on doors.....

The new students are:
Lawrence J. Dubetsky, Ph.D.
John D. Jeremy, Ch.E.
Ronald E. Missal, Ch.E.
Francis E. Resuta, Engr.
Patricia A. Reteneller, B.A.
George R. Rodriguez, Engr.
James J. Szczecina, A.L.

Best wishes to all new and old students at the Hazleton Campus from The Highacres Collegian staff and a word of advice.... JOIN AT LEAST ONE CLUB WHILE HERE AT HIGHACRES.....

Let us consider an example from this army of young men. He has a sweetheart. He is going steady. He has purchased between two and five dollars worth of candy, and he now dashes to his sweetheart where he trades his merchandise for possibly a kiss. To the young man, this was a "cool play". If this young man would examine the facts closer, he would discover that said "cool play" was actually pretty warm. For his merchandise, he received a kiss, but remember, the young lady received both the merchandise and the kiss for nothing. And if the "useless" sex has anything at all in common with the "useful" sex, the young lady did not find her part of the transaction too difficult. Love is said to be a game, and from the male viewpoint, it looks like a con game.

As I stated previously, this system has progressed too far to be stopped now. So, men, there is nothing to be done but to bear your burdens. Most of them only weigh around 110 pounds anyway.