Theta Sigma Pi Meet...

A meeting of the Theta Sigma Pi Sorority of the Hazleton Campus was held on Monday, February 27.

It was decided that the formal candlelight initiation ceremony of Miss ~~Pat Rotenaller~~ would take place on March 10. A date was also set for the voting of this year's May Queen and her court. Voting will take place on Wednesday, March 18. The date for the May Crowning has been set for Saturday, May 16. (Mrs. Bodenstein is advisor to the society.)

Belles Lettres Meet...

The Belles Lettres Society, a creative writing group advised by Professor Andrew Kafka, elected new officers at its meeting on March 5. They are as follows:

President--Hank Richard
Vice President--Frances Werpshaw
Secretary--John McCullough

Plans for readings of works by club members and ideas for the Spring Reading Festival on Main Campus were discussed.

Parnassus Meets.....

On Friday, March 6, the Parnassus Honor Society of the Hazleton Campus met with President Al Hinger presiding. At that time recommendations were made by faculty and student members to amend the present constitution of the society. These recommendations will be presented by Miss Pearl Garbrick, advisor to the group, to a faculty committee who will take action on the proposals. (The revisions when made formal and accepted will be published in this paper.)

Faculty attending the meeting were Miss Pearl Garbrick, Mr. Preston Peightal, and Miss Lillian Junas. Mr. A.G. Wilcox, who was unable to be present due to a conflicting class schedule, sent a letter embodying his interpretations of the problems facing Parnassus and suggestions for remedying the situations as he and other faculty members see them.

Students attending were Tom Klatch, Karen Snyder, Al Hinger, and Nancy Bradney.

The next meeting is tentatively scheduled for Monday evening, March 16 at 7:30 P.M. at Highacres.
