

MISS JUNAS RECEIVES ASSISTANTSHIP

Miss Lillian M. Junas, our part-time English instructor, has been awarded a half-time assistantship from the School of Journalism at the Pennsylvania State University beginning in September of 1959.

She will undertake advanced study toward a master of arts degree in addition to instructing a photography laboratory course.

Miss Junas received her B. A. degree in journalism from Penn State in June, 1957.

MR. WARD RECEIVES FELLOWSHIP

Mr. Gilbert H. Ward, associate professor of physics at Highacres, has been awarded a National Science Foundation Science Faculty Fellowship for the 1959-60 academic year.

The award, one of approximately 300 fellowships "to individuals to improve their competence as college teachers of science, mathematics or engineering" is in the amount of $6,300 plus tuition and travel allowances.

Mr. Ward's tenure as a National Science Foundation Fellow will be spent at Cornell University where he will devote full time to scientific study.

He is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin where he received both the bachelor's and master's degrees. He has taught at the city high schools in Shebogan and Wausau, both in Wisconsin, and has been a member of the Hazleton Campus faculty since 1948.

MATTERN SELECTED FOR SUMMER COURSE

J. Richard Mattern, associate professor of chemistry at the Hazleton Campus, has been named a participant in the 1959 Ohio University Summer Institute for College Teachers of Freshmen Chemistry under the grants-in-aid program of the National Science Foundation. The Institute will be held on the campus of Ohio University at Athens, Ohio, from July 13 to August 22.

Mr. Mattern, one of 45 participants chosen in nationwide competition, will receive a total stipend of $720, plus tuition and a travel allowance, for the six-week program.

The institute is designed to "bring to teachers of first-year chemistry in small colleges a better understanding of old and new concepts in organic, inorganic, and physical chemistry and an opportunity to consider methods of presentation of chemical information to their own students.

A. GORDON WILCOX DONATES HYMN TO LIBRARY

Mr. A. Gordon Wilcox, instructor of English at the Hazleton Campus, has donated an original piece of music titled THE CRUCIFIXION, words translated by H. M. Jones. It has been copyrighted. The copies of the hymn in the library are for medium and high voices.

PROF. KAFKA ON ENGLISH STUDY COMMITTEE

Prof. Andrew Kafka, of the Highacres English department is serving on the State English Committee for the Language-Arts Improvement Program of the Department of Public Instruction.