

PROF. PEIGHTAL IS GRANTED ASSISTANTSHIP

Professor Preston Peightal of the Hazleton Campus has been appointed graduate assistant in history at the Main Campus. He will teach two courses and will be taking three courses which total 15 credits to earn his Doctor in Philosophy.

Mr. Peightal had to take two language exams, one oral exam on five major areas of history and the Candidacy Exam to qualify for the assistantship. The grant includes payment of fees and a small salary.

BOOKS DONATED TO HIGHACRES LIBRARY

Professors Steel, Peightal, and Esher of the Hazleton Campus Faculty have donated these books to the library: Prince of Egypt by Dorothy Wilson (donated by Mr. Steel), a six-volume set of books by Theodore Roosevelt on the winning of the west and the naval war of 1812 (Mr. Peightal's gift), and a College Algebra book (from Mr. Esher).

Mr. Steel has also "put on loan" in the library reference books on Egypt.

Mr. Cary F. Baker, Jr. of the McGraw Hill Book Company has donated the Author's Book for people who are preparing to write.

(Thank you to all these men.)

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB HERE IN FALL??

It is hoped that the Hazleton Campus will receive a charter for the establishment of an International Relations Club for the fall semester of 1959.

There has been widespread enthusiasm over this on the part of the student body--if it continues a new extra-curricular activity may come to Highacres. Our neighbors at the Pottsville Center have a very active IRC under the guidance of Dr. Thomas Hunter--why don't the students at the Hazleton Campus formulate concrete plans for the establishment of an IRC?
