EDITORIALLY SPEAKING.....

The SUB is in a state of chronic sloppiness. Ask yourself these few questions:

While watching TV do you usually throw your apple cores under the sofa?

Are ashtrays included in your family budget? (Evidently not from the response our ashtrays have been getting.)

Do you find eating amidst other people's garbage--such as discarded bobbie pins, half-eaten lemon pies, and empty Wise potato chip bags-- a pleasure?

We all agree that something must be done to alleviate this situation. But what? First, use the trash cans and ashtrays--they are not merely decorative. Second, return your dirty dishes to the kitchen. Third, keep coats and lunches in the gameroom. Fourth, feel free to remind violators of their unsanitary habits.

If these measures are not successful it may be necessary to invoke the old Chinese custom of dining on the floor with your tray between your legs!

Do you like pinochile, chess, scrabble?

Well...if you have some free time and you're sick of the books move right along to the SUB. The House Rules Committee of the SGA has just purchased some games for you. Chess, checkers, darts, ping-pong, scrabble, and cards are all there for your playing pleasure.

In order to guarantee that all may take advantage of these supplies we are asking you to check paddles, cards and games out at the bookstore. A student will be there from 2 to 8 periods to issue the material to you upon presentation of your matriculation card. By instituting this procedure we hope to cut down on breakage and loss of games as the students will be held responsible .
