

THE BELLES-LETTRES SOCIETY

The Belles-Lettres Society has just completed the busiest part of its season.

On Tuesday, March 29, the club presented its second Annual Reading Festival with entries from all fields of literature--prose, poetry, and drama. The winners will attend a festival at the main campus where they will give their prize-winning readings. They will spend the whole day at the main campus on Thursday, April 28, 1960. They will attend a luncheon in their honor and a banquet at night. All four winners will receive a certificate which will show that they have participated. The winners and their selections are as follows:

Miss Jean Berche--"The Ballad of the Fool"
Mr. [unclear]--"The Ballad of the Fool"
Dr. [unclear]
Miss Jean Berche--"The Ballad of the Fool"

Congratulations are in order for those students, all of whom turned in magnificent performances.

Refreshments were served in the S.U.B. dining room after the readings and a pleasant time was had by all who attended.

On April 5th the Belles-Lettres Society sponsored a Reading Festival for the Regional High schools. Local talent from the senior classes of these schools participated. Mr. Boston awarded the prizes to those who won in the three categories of prose, poetry, and drama. Refreshments were served in the S.U.B.

The Sorority girls and Mrs. Bodenstein were very helpful in the task of serving refreshments.

THE BELLES-LETTRES SOCIETY (continued)

The officers of the Belles-Lettres Society are these:

Isadore Brody--President
Bob Porucchi--Vice-president
George Doherty--Secretary
Loretta Westler--Treasurer

Professor Andrew Mallick is the Faculty advisor.

INCOME TAX vignette

There was the woman who filed her return at an Internal Revenue Service office and who claimed two children as dependents, although she listed herself as "single," and commented, "Can't a girl make a mistake once in a while?"...Probably the income tax man was thinking of "Why two mistakes?"

LOOK ON THE

Light Side

