

1960-1961 COLLEGE ARTS FILM SCHEDULE

The following films are scheduled to be shown in the Student Union Building at 8 P.M. on the indicated dates. A heavy throng is expected for the initial showing.

TIGHT LITTLE ISLAND

FRIDAY: 21 October 1960

"What happens when a hard drinking island full of Scots are first deprived of their SCOTCH and then find a whole ship full of BLACK & WHITE? One of the funniest pictures of all time!"

HAMLET

FRIDAY: 18 November 1960

"Shakespeare's greatest Tragedy! This is the Laurence Olivier version."

THE TITAN AND APPALACHIAN SPRING

FRIDAY: 9 December 1960

"The story of Michelangelo, the Titan of Art; his life, his work, his times. A film that has won awards and critical acclaim the world over. Pulitzer Prize winning music; the only full-length Martha Graham ballet on film. Martha Graham designed the dances for Oklahoma."

THE SEVENTH SEAL

FRIDAY: 10 February 1961

"A Swedish film triumph of Ingmar Bergman, Sweden's greatest director. THE NEW YORK TIMES: 'An uncommon and fascinating film'; THE CLEVELAND PRESS: 'Probably will be one of the greatest films, foreign or domestic, of all time.'"

ANIMAL FARM AND HENRY MOORE

FRIDAY: 10 March 1961

"George Orwell's famous fable that attacks Communism and Socialism on their own terms. This film is animated cartoon art at its best. Full color, political satire."

ON THE WATERFRONT

FRIDAY: 7 April 1961

"Marlon Brando's Academy Award Performance, eight Academy awards in all. A picture well worth seeing again...and again."

SORORITY HELD ANNUAL HAYRIDE

On Saturday, October 15, the Theta Sigma Pi sorority held its annual hayride.

Leaving the Student Union Building at 7:30 P.M., the party made its leisurely way to the State Police Grove in St. Johns where a weiner (?) roast and dancing were enjoyed by the girls and their dates. From reports, everyone had a wonderful time.

NOTICE

Students are requested to keep brief cases on the racks downstairs or in the clothes' closet upstairs in the Main Building. Do not place them on the floors.
