The PARNASSUS SOCIETY, which was first formed at Highacres in 1952, recently held initiation ceremonies in the Union Building lounge. Seven outstanding students from the Hazleton Campus were initiated into Parnassus by "placing their names" in the honorary member book of the society. The seven students are these: Johanna Barkocy, Connie Belletiere, and Bernice Mulik, medical technology students; Donata Matteo, arts and letters; Gerald Bogert, engineering; Francis Demara, electrical technology; and Richard Clemack, secondary education.

In addition, thirteen freshman students were pledged into PARNASSUS at the initiation ceremonies. They are the following: Richard Adami, Carmella Bangor, Richard Bertolini, Loren Bittner, Harry Defina, Nancy Frye, June Getz, Robert Krutsick, Art Marsicano, Paul Miller, Grace Ramaize, Richard Swank, and Albert Tencza.

After the ceremonies were concluded, a meeting was held for the election of officers. Steve Gladis was elected President, Bernard Bartos, Vice-President; Connie Belletiere, Secretary; and Richard Clemack, Treasurer. These sophomores will serve on PARNASSUS until the end of this semester. In June, another election will probably take place.

Also, PARNASSUS initiated plans at the meeting for a picnic to be held this June.

Refreshments were served after the meeting. Miss Garbrick, Mr. Esher, Mrs. Bodenstein, and Mr. Schneider were the faculty members present at the affair.

MAY QUEEN CROWNED

The Hazleton Campus crowned their own May Queen on the thirteenth of May in the afternoon celebration. This day of much festivity ended with a dance that evening in the Union Building with music by Lee Vincent. Not only was the dance well attended by students, but a number of the faculty appeared with their dates.

The Queen, Connie Belletiere, as she appears in the picture is being crowned by the 1960 Queen, Mary Lou Zukovich.
