

Pictured above are recipients of a approximately $5,000.00 in scholarships distributed among twenty-seven students presently attending the Hazleton Campus of The Pennsylvania State University.

Pictured are first row, left to right: John Tokash, West Hazleton, West Hazleton School Spirit Club Scholarship; David Zillig, Hazleton, Hazleton National Bank Scholarship; Rosalie Swita, Dippel Manor, Hazleton, Senatorial Scholarship; June Fiel, Tamaqua, Senatorial Scholarship; Carolyn Egger, Hazleton, Food Fair Stores Foundation Scholarship; Diane Getz, West Hazleton, American University Women Scholarship; Kathleen Kumke, Clarks Summit, Clarks Summit Abington Student Scholarship; Carol Janasik, Berwick, Senatorial Scholarship; Arleen Dallachiesa, Hazleton, Senatorial Scholarship; and Marie Melchiorre, Berwick, Columbia County Federation of Women's Club Scholarship, Eyerly Journalism Award and Senatorial Scholarship.

Second row, left to right: Frederick Neff, Hazleton, Hazleton Elks Scholarship; Robert Dvorsky, Lansford, Senatorial Scholarship; Walter Kreiger, Sheppton, UNICO Club of Hazleton Scholarship and Senatorial Scholarship; Wayne Michael, Berwick,

Berwick Steelworkers Union (Local 1864) Scholarship; Allan Zadiraka, Berwick, Berwick Steelworkers Union (Local 1864) Scholarship; Frank C. Kostos, Director, Hazleton Campus of the Pennsylvania State University; Robert Beishline, Hazleton, Senatorial Scholarship; Anthony Molinari, Nesquehoning, Senatorial Scholarship; Richard Grovich, West Hazleton, West Hazleton School Spirit Club Scholarship; Taylor Searfoss, White Haven, Senatorial Scholarship; Eugene Dorneman, Hazleton, Dorr-Oliver Incorporated Scholarship; and Ronald Delese, Hazleton, Senatorial Scholarship.

Not present when picture was taken: Robert Kistler, Lansford, Senatorial Scholarship; George Koshuta, Fegley Oil Company Scholarship of Tamaqua and Senatorial Scholarship; Alfred Michalik, Summit Hill, Senatorial Scholarship; Raymond Nika, Summit Hill, Senatorial Scholarship; and Geraldine Zeigler, Coaldale, Senatorial Scholarship.

New Library Acquisitions Listed

Some recent additions to the Hazleton Campus library shelves have been donations of the Honorable William T. Bachman. They are the Laws of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania 1957, 1959-2 vol., 1961-2 vol., and The Pennsylvania Manual 1959-1960. The Women's Auxiliary of the Penna. State University, Hazleton Campus has donated The 19th Century In Art in memory of Mrs. Ruth Wise of Conyngham who was a member of the auxiliary.

Following is a partial list of other recent acquisitions:

English, James. Principles of Organic Chemistry.
Frost, Robert. In the Clearing. Encyclopedia Britannica, 1962.
Whaley, W. G. Principles of Biology.
Tuchman, Barbara. The Guns of August.
Blackwood, O. H. ed. An Outline of Atomic Physics.

Hegel, C. W. Philosophy of Hegel.
Bowers, Fredson. Whitman's Manuscript Leaves of Grass.
Hartley, Eugene. Outside Readings in Psychology.
Plato. The Dialogues of Plato.
Colm, Gerhard. The Economy of the American People.

Glee Club Meets

On Monday evening, October 8, at 7:30, the first meeting of the Hazleton Highacres' Glee Club was held in the cafeteria of the Student Union Building. Mr. Burton E. Hall, teacher and chorus director at Hazleton High School, will be the director of the newly organized group.

There were 13 in attendance and the membership is still open. Mr. Hall would like at least 28 or 30 members. Various engagements will be arranged for the group throughout the Hazleton area.

Library Rules And Regulations

The library is opened every day from 8:40 to 4:55.

Books may be charged out for two weeks with the privilege of renewal.

A fine of two cents a day is charged for overdue books, pamphlets, and periodicals.

A fine of twenty-five cents for the first hour and ten cents for each additional hour is charged for overnight books.

Periodicals may be charged out for one week with the privilege of renewal.

There will be no smoking or loud talking in the library.

If you have any questions, please ask your librarian.

CAMPUS SORORITY HOLDS ELECTIONS; KAY YENCHO PRES.

Early in the term, at an informal meeting of the Theta Sigma Pi Sorority the following officers were elected: President — Kay Yencho; Vice-President — Carol Janasik; Secretary—Darilyn Clark; Publicity Chairman—Kathleen Botchick; and Treasurer — Geneva Avillion.

On Thursday, October 4, twenty-four new freshmen girls were formally initiated at a candle-light ceremony which climaxed two days of initiation procedure. The affair took place at 8 p. m. in the SUB of the Hazleton Campus.

Shortly afterward, a business meeting was held with Miss Yencho presiding. Tentative plans for a hayride were discussed.

JOHN ROSENTOCK IS RE-ELECTED BY BELLES-LETTRES

Attendance was high at the first meeting of the Belles-Lettres Society, October 4, at which time the members nominated and elected officers for the Fall term. They are as follows: President — John Rosentock; Vice-President — Gregg Smith; and Secretary-Treasurer—Carmela Sacco.

This year, Belles-Lettres hopes to continue its ambitious tradition and further benefit the campus by drawing up a pamphlet history of Highacres, entitled, "Restrospect." All Belles-Lettres members are asked to support this year's special project.

The Belles-Lettres Society announced its enthusiasm for another year of "beautiful letters," and welcomes especially into its membership those students who wish to promote the cultural life of Hazleton Campus through their active participation in its many club functions. Indeed, last year's Belles-Lettres activities provide this year's members with a challenging path to tread. Among the club's accomplishments during the fall, winter, and spring terms of 1960-61 were an art exhibit sponsored by the Hazleton Art League, two dramatic reading festivals on both high school and college levels, and a bus trip to a New York Broadway play.

COLUMBIA RECORD STORE

The Finest of Record Selections In The Area
DOWNTOWN HAZLETON