

Highacres Collegian

Volume 30 — No. 2

HAZLETON CAMPUS, HAZLETON, PENNSYLVANIA

March 18, 1964

Reading Festival Presented

Left to Right—Bob Yuhas, James Scarcella, Paulette Vetter, Jerry Kapes, Molly Boyer, and Donald Gerard.

The Hazleton Campus of the Pennsylvania State University presented its sixth annual Reading Festival on March 12, in the SUB Lounge. The event, which began at 7:00 p. m., was sponsored by the Belles-Lettres Society under the supervision of Mr. Andrew Kafka, faculty advisor, and Mr. James Scarcella, club president.

Mr. Scarcella gave the address of welcome, and Mr. Donald Gerard, a member of the Belles-Lettres Society, was the Master of Ceremonies. Judges for the event were as follows: Miss Helen Dissenbach, a faculty member of the West Hazleton High School;

Mr. Eugene Gallagher, head teacher of the Butler Township School; Mr. John Hooper, a member of the Hazleton High School faculty; Mrs. John Longo, vice-president of the Hazleton Campus Ladies Auxiliary; Professor Tom Price, English Department faculty member of the Hazleton Campus; and Miss Gladys Schwartz, faculty member of the Hazleton High School.

The four winners were Mr. Jerome Kapes, reading a selection from "Gunga Din" by Rudyard Kipling; Miss Paulette Vetter, reading a short story entitled "Spelling Bee" by Laurene Chinn;

Miss Margaret Boyer, reading an excerpt from "Macbeth" by William Shakespeare; Mr. Robert Yuhas, reading the poem "I Like Americans" by Edna St. Vincent Millay. The four winners will be able to participate in the University Park Reading Festival next month.

The other contestants received certificates of participation. They are as follows: Miss Janet Astleford, Mr. Martin Mehall, Mr. Bruce Phillips, Mr. John Eidleman, Mr. James Donahue, and Mr. Joseph Broyan.

Refreshments were served following the Festival in the HUB Cafeteria.

The charter was presented by Dr. Homer L. Johnson, Pittsburg, Immediate Past Governor of the Kansas Kiwanis District.

Jim Voigts of Washburn University, President of the 500th club, received the charter on behalf of his fellow members and his college.

Principal speaker at the charter night ceremony was Dr. Harold E. Sponberg, President of Washburn University. In acknowledging the new club's presence on the campus, Dr. Sponberg said, "Circle K fulfills not only a definite need on the college campus, but in its dedication to the Kiwanis principles of service enhances the realization of citizenship responsibilities and improves the moral climate of the entire community."

Although the Washburn club is number 500 on Circle K's rolls, (Continued on Page Four)

Lodge Wins In Mock Primary

Henry Cabot Lodge, U.S. Ambassador to South Viet Nam, won the mock New Hampshire Republican Primary Election at the Hazleton Campus of Penn State University.

Lodge, a write-in candidate, received 29 votes or 35% of the total cast.

This outcome proved to be a striking correlation with the actual results of the New Hampshire Primary. As everyone knows, the marginal vote for Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge was 35.4% in that election.

However, there was a significant difference in the percentage of votes for the remaining candidates.

Second high was Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, whose name appeared on the ballot. He received 25 votes, representing 28% of the total votes.

Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, a write-in candidate, was third with 14 votes, 17% of the total votes; and Sen. Barry Goldwater was fourth with 10 votes or 12% of the total. Goldwater's name was on the ballot.

Sen. Margaret Chase Smith was fifth with 7 votes, Gov. William Scranton sixth with 4 as a write-in candidate, Harold E. Stassen seventh with 3 votes, George Romney eighth with 2, and Norman LePage ninth with 1.

Eighty-three votes were cast, and the names of the declared candidates appeared on the campus ballot in the exact order as in New Hampshire.

The election was sponsored by the Intercollegiate Council on Governments. Advisors are David Oden and Atty. Pasco Schiavo.

Transfer Students For Spring Term

Transfer students to University Park for the Spring Term are as follows:

Kathleen Botchick, Robert Dobyrynio, Robert Frey, William Heyman, Patricia Holshue, Donna Kennedy, Kenneth Launikonis, Paul Levkulic, Walter Pilger, Noreen Reytar, Harry Seal, Katherine Yencho, Barbara Zeleznock.

Ronald Delese is also transferring to the Wyomissing Campus.

HOUSING FOR COMMENCEMENT

The Penn State Department of Housing has announced that they will be able to provide overnight housing for students only on June 13, the evening before commencement.

They are unable to provide housing for relatives of graduating students, because of the present calendar of classes for students already occupying the rooms.

Another unfortunate fact is that virtually all commercial accommodations in the vicinity have been booked for June 13.

The only alternative would be to leave very early June 14, or to obtain accommodations somewhere between here and the campus.

New Circle K Initiated at Kansas

The 500th Circle K club, located on the campus of Washburn University, Topeka, Kansas, was chartered in special ceremonies at the Jayhawk Hotel, Topeka, Saturday evening, February 1, according to Richard Jameson, President of the Circle K Club here at Highacres.

John H. de Boisblanc, a freshman at Louisiana State University School of Law, and President of Circle K International, spoke briefly. He described the chartering as the "attainment of a significant milestone in the career of Circle K International which, though only 10 years old, has already become the largest campus service organization in North America."