The eight Commonwealth campuses joining in this event were Allentown, Hazleton, Ogontz, Pottsville, Scranton, Wilkes-Barre, Wyomissing, and York.

PEACE CORPS PROGRAMS CALL . . .

home improvement projects, while Volunteers with training or experience in surveying are needed for road building programs in Nepal, British Honduras, and Tunisia.

Graduates of two-year colleges who have majored in liberal arts are especially well qualified for one of the Peace Corps' most important programs — community development. The experience of "community action" is a built-in feature of American life — people getting together to solve their own problems. But in many parts of the world, this is a new idea. Basically, the big job in community development is to teach democracy on village level, to encourage the villagers to cooperate in achieving some of their long-deferred hopes. The results that show take the form of schools, roads, wells, gardens, aqueducts, and latrines. But many Volunteers feel the results that don't show are even more important. Like a community's realization for the first time that it can help itself.

Holders of Associate Degrees in liberal arts will be especially welcomed this summer for community development and social welfare projects to stimulate self-help activities in Nyasaland, Philippines, Colombia, Ecuador, Sabah/Sarawak, and Senegal.

Most of these programs do not require previous knowledge of a foreign language. Peace Corps training includes thorough language preparation. Volunteers receive intensive classroom and laboratory work in the language of the country to which they are assigned. It is given by a modern, concentrated method designed to have the students thinking in the new language, as well as speaking it, by the time they finish the course.

Peace Corps training also covers the history, culture, economy, geography, and politics of the areas where the Volunteers will serve; Communism and the methods by which the free world is meeting its threat, international affairs, and refresher courses in American history and institutions.

In order to be eligible for the Peace Corps, Volunteer applicants must be American citizens. If married, both husband and wife must qualify to serve in the same country and they must have no dependents under 18.

In addition to the $75 per month readjustment allowance put aside for them by the Peace Corps, Volunteers receive living allowances to cover the cost of food, housing, transportation, appropriate clothing and miscellaneous expenses. Medical care is provided by the Peace Corps.

Especially appealing to two-year graduates are the opportunities to learn a new language, live in a foreign country for two years, and come home to find $1,800 saved up in the bank—all while helping their country in its efforts to help mankind.

Highacres Blood Drive

On May 19, from 11 a. m. to 5 p. m., the Hazleton Campus blood drive will take place. The goal for the Campus is 10%. If the quota is met, every student, faculty member, staff member, and all persons residing with them will have blood protection.

Blood protection works in the following manner: if you or any member of your household receives blood and our 10% quota has been met, contact Mrs. Tamea and ask for blood receipts, as many receipts as pints of blood the patient has received. Upon presentation of the receipts to the blood agency, you will be exempted from replacing the blood used.

Remember, May 19, at St. Gabriel's High School, from 11 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Protect yourself — give blood!

Parking Regulations

Commencing this term, all students attending activities on Campus are required to park in the student parking lot. The parking of student cars in the student lot will alleviate the tie-ups on top of the hill; thus, everyone will be provided with adequate parking space.

By the Fall Term, the lot and paths leading to the S.U.B. will be completed.

Peace Corps Tests

Peace Corps Placement Tests will be held on Saturday, May 9, at 8:30 a. m. at the Hazleton Post Office.
