First neighbor: What are all your chickens doing out in front of the house?
Second neighbor: They heard some men were going to lay a sidewalk and they wanted to see how it was done.

Plump teacher: (instructing her class in the wonders of nature) At home I have a canary, and it can do something I can't do. Do any of you know what it is?

Pupil: I know---take a bath in a saucer.

Two eager and dashing young beaux
Were held up and robbed of their cleaux.
While the weather is hot
They won't miss a lot,
But what will they do when it sneaux?

There was a young girl from St. Paul
Wore a newspaper dress to a ball,
But the dress caught on fire
And burned her entire
Front page---sporting section---and all.

Customer: I'd like to buy a pair of those stretch ski pants.

Saleswoman: Yes, madam. They come in three sizes:
small, medium, and don't bend over.

A family I know recently bought a puppy, but they didn't know what to call it. After a few days they decided to name the dog Carpenter, since the little thing was doing odd jobs around the house.

A sociologist was lecturing to a woman's club on the crisis arising from the world population explosion.

"Do you realize that somewhere in the world a woman is giving birth to a child every minute, day and night?" he said. "What are we going to do about it?" A woman in the back row raised her hand. "I think the first thing we should do is find that woman and stop her!"

Don McNeill was interviewing a guest on his radio program, "Breakfast Club". The host was quite obviously fishing for a plug for one of his sponsors, but the guest wasn't taking the hint. Finally, McNeill asked in desperation, "You know what Star-Puf is don't you?" The guest hesitated a moment, then asked, "Are they famous?"

Southern Belle: Mama, what do you give a man who has everything?

Mother: Encouragement, honey, encouragement!

Fapa Robin: How did that speckled egg get into our nest?

Mama Robin: I did it for a lark.

Editor's note: If you're still depressed, ask Pat Mongi to tell you the joke about the eagle.
