Asking a woman her age,
Is like buying a second-hand car.
The speedometer's been set back,
But you can't tell just how far.

PARNASSUS HOLDS FIRST MEETING

The Parnassus Chapter of the Keystone Honor Society held its first meeting of the fall term on Thursday, October 14. Joseph Zola, president, was in charge of the session. The purpose of Parnassus is to recognize those students who have shown outstanding academic achievement, and who have actively participated in extracurricular activities. The requirements for membership are these:

1. Second term or higher standing.
2. No less than 2.5 all university average.
3. An active member in at least two activities (sports and intramurals count as one); or an active member in one activity and helped in a major service or function.

The Parnassus Honor Society has been a service organization on the Hazleton Campus since 1953.

SORORITY COLLECTS FOR U.N.I.C.E.F.

On October 29, members of the Theta Sigma Pi Service Sorority collected for the United Nations International Children's Educational Fund (U.N.I.C.E.F.). The sorority wishes to thank all those students who generously gave to this worthy cause. The money will be greatly appreciated by some underprivileged child.

NEW BLOOD IN THE SPORTS DEPT.

The sports department extends a welcome to two new reporters. They are Bob Rossi and Ted Billy. These gentlemen will be reporting the sports news as it happens. We hope that their stay with the Collegian will be a rewarding one.
