

THE LION'S ROAR

LIONS CRUSH WEST VIRGINIA

On the damp, rainy day of October 23, 1965, Penn State met West Virginia in the annual Homecoming game. The Mounts fell prey to the Nittany Lions by a score of 44-6. This was accomplished by a five touchdown, three field goal landslide.

Lion quarterback Jack White threw two touchdown passes and ran for another score. Halfback Mike Irwin scored three times, and Tom Sherman kicked three field goals rolling up the high score.

West Virginia's only score came at the end of the first quarter. It narrowed the lead at that point to 13-6 when Allen McCune tossed an eight yard pass to Bob Dunleavy.

State scored three touchdowns in the second period, taking advantage of Mountaineer errors.

Early in the game, Jack White hit end Jack Curry with a thirty-two yard pass down the middle for the first State touchdown. Then West Virginia scored after Garrett Ford returned the kickoff 77 yards to the Penn State 13.

In the second quarter, a 73 yard State drive ended in Mike Irwin's first score---a 23 yard run.

 Wife (fishing)--Oh, Chester, I've got a bite! What'll I do?

Husband---Reel in your line.

Wife---I've done that. The fish is tight against the end of the pole.

What should I do next?

Huband---Shinny up the rod and strangle it.

Every dog has his day, but a dog with a broken tail has a weekend,

Floorwalker: And just why did the sales-girl slap you?

Customer: I dunno. All I said was, "Will you take something off for cash?"

 HAPPY THANKSGIVING FROM THE COLLEGIAN.

EASTERN DIVISION TOURNAMENT BEGINS

The fall term competition of the Intercampus League began on Friday and Saturday, October 29-30, at the York Campus. The object of this competition is to decide who will lead the Eastern Division in chess, bowling and table tennis. Those competing for the honors were the Hazleton, Allentown, Berks, Ogontz, Schuylkill, Wilkes-Barre and York Campuses.

Highacres was represented in all three categories. In chess, our representatives were Mike Jemo, Fred Maschak, and Stanley Genits. Mike and Fred were on last year's chess team and proved hard men to beat. Stan also has a way with the chess men.

Supporting Hazleton strongly in bowling were Paul Miller, Jon O'Connell, Ed Skernolis and Ross Dymond.

Clarence Sasso and John Cherill were Hazleton's arms in the table tennis competition, and both men have practiced hard for the tournament.

The host for the Eastern Division Tournaments this year was the York Campus, York, Pennsylvania. The judges for this affair were B.J. Gault, chairman, Charles Bruch, and our own J.L. McCallus.

Highacres is very proud of the boys who participated in this competition.
