

AN EDITORIAL

Last year several students from this campus made a vain attempt to obtain a semi-automatic traffic light for the university entrance. A petition was drawn up and signed by both students and faculty who were in favor of the light. Copies of this petition were sent to Governor Shafer, Senator Murray, Department of Highways, Chamber of Commerce, and the Superintendents of Sugarloaf Township. We received letters of acknowledgement of the petition from the said people. However it was reported that we do not need a light at the entrance, though a light could be installed at the Valmont and Airport intersection.

Due to recent accidents involving Penn State students, several sophomores are again attempting to obtain support for the light from other students. Support is growing rapidly. This effort from the student body is very much appreciated, for we know that any success that is gained on this issue will benefit all.

COLLEGIAN STAFF

| | |
|-------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| Editor in Chief | Robert Fogarty |
| Assistant Editors | Mary Stalgaitis Patrick McElwee |
| Sports Editor | Robert Kozak |
| Layout Editor | Marian Sipler |
| Student Affairs Editor | Rich. Dino |
| Circulation Editor | Debbie Heckman |
| Photographer | Richard Maynard |
| Advisor | Mr. Topf |

We do not present this traffic light as a panacea for accidents. However, the light will minimize the possibility of having accidents. Other students who have attended Highacres in previous years experienced many hazards while crossing the intersection. Inclement weather such as rain, sleet, snow, and fog reduce the drivers visibility. Also, a driver's minor miscalculation could be fatal because of the small crest in the highway. Thirdly, the lack of enforcement on the speed laws of Route 93 encourages a driver to exceed the limit. Finally, a recent survey by the Department of Highways reported that the area in question has more than enough traffic to warrant the installation of a light.

The Collegian Staff together with the student body urges the proper officials to act upon our request for a safety device. This paper will keep the students informed about any future progress on this issue.

ART EXHIBITION

Mildred Sacco, a member of the Women's Auxiliary of Highacres, has displayed her works in the S.U.B. lounge the week of October 13. Her exhibit was striking and drew many appreciative comments from both the faculty and the student body.

Reporters

Bonnie Bangor
Kathleen Gibson
Don Jacoby
Janie Ammon

Typists

Mary Kapuschinsky
Eileen Gibson
Joanne Volosky
Merry Repp

BELLES-LETTRES MEETS

The first general meeting of the Belles-Lettres Society was held Tuesday, October 1. Members were appointed to various committees. Future announcements will appear on the S.U.B. bulletin board.

Projects sponsored by the Belles-Lettres Society are these: the annual dramatic reading festival for Highacres campus students and the annual high school dramatic reading festival.

Membership in this club is open to all students who are interested in literature and the arts.

"THE ENGLISH TEACHER"

See the teacher.
He teaches English.
He hates misplaced commas.
He hates obscure meanings.
He hates pronouns with unclear references.
Hate, Hate, Hate!

See the student.
He studies English.
He misplaces commas.
He obscures meanings.
His pronouns have unclear references.
Shame, Shame, Shame!

See the teacher,
hate the student.
See the teacher,
flunk the student.
Flunk, Flunk, Flunk!

The student is Ernest Hemingway.
I guess Ernie couldn't write as well as he thought he could!

by,
Robert Shroyer