The ABA east, which is presently running in the same direction as last year, should however have a different outcome. The switch will have Kentucky over Virginia, the reason, 7'2" Artis Gilmore, The Colonels also have last year's co-rookie of the year, Don Issel. The Squires will fight it down to the wire. however, with the other half of rookie of the year honores Charle Scott. From there, the N.Y. Nets, not Mets, should garner a playoff spot with the rest of the division fighting for 4th place money.

The Western Division took up right where it left off last year. Utah and Indiana have been sharing the top spot since the season began. The teams are basically the same as last year's squads. The only significant change being the addition of All-League Jimmy Jones to the Stars. This is enough for me to go with Utah to capture the division. The rest of the pack is for back with one bright spot being the Memphis Pro's rookie, Johnny Newman, the high scoring soph from Ole Miss who signed on as a hardship case.

The ABA should have more impact on the sports scene this year because of big name rookies Gilmore, Neuman, and the Carolina Cougers 7 foot 1 Jim McDaniels from Western Kentucky. In addition, the league will be in the paper everyday in their fight for or We have loads of Love cosmetics against (who knows?) merger.

Hazleton Women's Volleyball teams capture second, third places in Penn State tourney

The Hazleton

Team B, led by Captain

Vicki Beishline, Marie Blewitt, Carol Ceci, Tina David, and Karen Delfine.

Team A, led by Captain Becky Machella, easily swept 3rd place. Members of her team included Mary Curry, Frances Kasarda, Kathy Seward, Martha Shaffer, and Donna Yannuzzi.

The Tournament's first place trophy went to Scranton Campus, with Schuylkill Campus placing 4th and Ogontz Campus placing 5th.

Mrs. Hoffman, coach of the Hazleton Teams, was exceptionally proud of the fine teamwork and skill both teams exhibited and the display of determined endurance that enabled both teams to bring home victories.

Mrs. Hoffman and the team would especially like to thank Mr. Shaevel for his assistance in transporting the teams to Scranton for the tournament.
