Classes again have begun here at Highacres, and I would like to take this opportunity to welcome the returning sophomores, and the new freshmen to the Pennsylvania State University.

Now that everyone has survived the hectic first weeks of classes, it is time to turn our attention to volleyball. Women's volleyball intramurals have now begun. This year there are ten teams participating in the games, and it seems that it is going to be a very successful endeavor. The only requirement placed on each woman is that she must pay fifty cents to the Intramural Board. The games started on September 19, and the climax of the games will be when a few women are chosen to participate in a tournament with other Commonwealth Campuses at the York Campus of the University.

In order to win a game of volleyball, a team must either reach fifteen points or be in the lead after eight minutes. The winner of two out of three games will be the winner of the match.

The games take place at the athletic field, and the time is from 5:00. So, girls, if you have signed up to participate, find your team captain and take a look at your schedule. Mrs. Jago has gone through a lot of trouble to give up her own time so that we can have the opportunity to play volleyball. Don't just have your name on the list of participants. There isn't any fun in winning a match by forfeits!

GYMNASTICS!

Tired of that "nothing to do" drag? Why not try one of the fastest growing sports today, GYMNASTICS! Perform on such pieces of equipment as the parallel bars, Swedish box, uneven bars, balancing beam, rings, ropes, and mats. A gymnastics club, under the direction of Mrs. Deidre Jago, is in the formation. This club is open to all, whether you have had prior experience or not, to learn and develop gymnastic skills. Sounds like fun, doesn't it? But without you it can't get off the ground. Anyone interested should contact Tom Urosevich in the Collegian office, located in the game room of the S.U.B.

WE ARE ALL PRISONERS, BUT SOME OF US ARE IN CELLS WITH WINDOWS AND SOME WITHOUT.

Kahlil Gibran

The Intramural Sports Board has been formed on the Campus. The advisor of the board is Mr. Ron Biggers, and the members of the board are Tom Shea, Bill Dougherty, William Skuba, Fran Hinkle, Diane Zehner, Carol Shenosky, Diana Ferriola, Brenda Bilek, Gil Hutton, Karen Daley and Sharon Slingerland.

The purpose of organizing the Sports Board is to encourage the interest of sports among the students here at the campus. The board hopes that all the students will participate in the intramural sports offered to them.

It is hoped that the board can set up different sports for the Fall, Winter, and Spring terms. The board is now in the process of forming its constitution of articles and amendments. Any student wanting to participate in any intramural sport must pay a small registration fee of $.50. This enables the student to play in the games.
