

The Highacres Collegian

HAZLETON CAMPUS LIBRARY

PUBLISHED BY STUDENTS OF THE HAZLETON CAMPUS OF PENNSYLVANIA STATE UNIVERSITY

VOLUME NINE, NUMBER FIVE

HAZLETON, PA. 18201

FEBRUARY 27, 1974

NEW INSTRUCTOR

Another new addition to the faculty up here on the hill, is Tom Caccese, the assistant basketball coach here at Highacres.

Tom Caccese is a graduate of Penn State University. During his time here, he was the Vice-President of the SGA. It was then that the SGA bought the chime system that still tolls the time here at Highacres. He served as President of the Belles-Lettres Society and the President of the Veteran Fraternity, which was organized under his auspices.

Mr. Caccese also served on the Highacres COLLEGIAN and filled the position of Sports Editor. In 1970, he won the Best Sports Article award from the Collegiate Press Association.

Mr. Caccese was the first student to win the Eric A. Walker Award at the Hazleton campus. He also won the Sophomore of the Year Award, and the Academic Achievement Leadership Award in 1969.

At present, he is teaching Health at Bishop Hafey High School in Hazle Township and also serves as coach for the B.H.H.S. soccer and baseball teams. He also informed the COLLEGIAN that if the opportunity arises, he would like to become a full-time faculty member here at Highacres.

Parnassus

The Parnassus Chapter of the Keystone Society will open its membership during the Spring Term. To be eligible a student must have a cumulative average of 2.5 and be active in two extracurricular activities. Parnassus sponsors the STUDENT OF THE YEAR AWARD and ushers at Associate Degree graduation. Members of the branch campus automatically become members of the parent chapter at U-Park upon transfer. Eligible students should contact Deborah Berger, Linda Gallagher, Fred Kolet, or Mike Petresky before Friday, March 15.

DEAN APPOINTED

Dr. Raymond Murphey, Vice-President of Student Affairs at University Park, has established the Department of Secondary School Relations. Dr. Glenn Carter is head of this new department at University Park. Each Dean of Student Affairs at each Commonwealth Campus has this additional responsibility.

Dean Joseph McCallus has been placed in charge of secondary school relations at Highacres. This new assignment will include working with University Park officials in their admissions office. Dean McCallus will also work with guidance personnel and counselors in the area school systems. His job will also include offering assistance to prospective Penn State students.

KING COAL

Dave Rothrock, president of the History Club, has announced that the History Club will sponsor a week of historical exhibits and speakers. The week has been designated as March 18-22. An exhibit entitled "King Coal" consisting of pictures and artifacts of the anthracite region will be on display in the Library. Drawings by Perry Sterling will also be on display.

On March 19, Attorney John Elliot will give a lecture on the Mollie McGuires at 8:00 in C-1. John Brennen, President of the Pennsylvania Labor History Society, will speak sometime during the week on the Iattimer Massacre. The History Club has also secured the movie "The Mollie McGuires" which was filmed in Pockley. Drs. Aurand and Miller are the club advisors.

Belles-Lettres

Dale Walck, president of the Belles-Lettres Society, has announced that the Sixteenth Annual Highacres Dramatic Reading Festival will be held April 5 at 7:15 in the Library. Selections are read from the fields of poetry, prose and drama. Sign up sheets can be found in the Library.

A meeting will be held Thursday, March 21, at 12:30 in the SUB Lounge for all persons who wish to join the Society. Plans will be discussed for sponsoring the Fifteenth Annual Tri-County High School Dramatic Reading Festival. Person who cannot attend this meeting and still wish to assist may contact Dale Walck, President; Linda Gallagher, Vice-President; Deborah Berger, Secretary/Treasurer; Henry Tamini, Historian; or Professor Andrew Kafka, Advisor.

inside the collegian

editorials.....page two edna.....page two entertainment...page three features.....page three sound.....page four sports.....page nine