

WALK-A-THON

The annual Walk-A-Thon for the March of Dimes will be held March 31, according to Ken Heydt, Highacres Walk-A-Thon chairman. The money raised will be used for research in fighting birth defects. Persons will be walking in Hazleton, Wilkes-Barre, Scranton, and La Plume-Clarks Summit. The walk is sponsored by the March of Dimes and coordinated by the Students of the Highacres Campus, SGA of Keystone Junior College, the Sophomore Class of Marywood College, and Human Services Committee of Wilkes College.

Persons who walked last year will receive registration cards in the mail. Other interested persons may get a registration card from Ken Heydt, Mark Denke or Dr. Jerry Covert.

Bill Schaffer, captain of the Highacres Hockey Club, is confident that the team will be able to get in a few more games before Spring weather hits. The scheduled game against the Hazleton High School club last month was cancelled due to heavy snow and poor ice conditions.

February has not been kind to the Highacres Wrestling Team. Hazleton campus was defeated in the first match this month at Altoon PSU and in the Feb. 7 contest against the Wilkes-Barre campus at home. The Commonwealth Campus Tourney at the York campus is tentatively scheduled for the 15-16th.

Theta Sigma Pi Rep.-Susan Petrilla; Alpha Phi Omega Rep.- Tony Seo; Broadcasting Club Rep.-Rod Prior; Ex. Officio-Advisor-Mark Denke; Members-At-Large, Dave Trumbauer, Bert Nothstein, Nelson Thomas and Barry Jais.

The Students for a Creative Society have extended the deadling for articles for NEW HORIZONS LITERARY MAGAZINE until Friday, Feb. 22. Sponsorships are still being sold for fifty cents. Anyone interested may contact the SCS in the Publications Office.

VALENTINE DANCE HELD

A Valentine's Day Dance was sponsored by the Theta Sigma Pi Sorority on February 16. It was held at Gus Genetti's Motor Lodge from 8:30 P.M. to 1:30 A.M. Music was by the Pendulum. Door prizes donated by PJ's Place, Hazleton Bullets, Bob Smith's, Heritage Shop, Pal Joey Sporting Goods, and The Grocer Shop, were awarded after the buffet. Mrs. Bodenstein was presented with a surprise cake for her birthday, which was a few days before. Approximately 75 students attended the dance. The members of the faculty in attendance were Dr. and Mrs. David, Dean and Mrs. McCallus, Mr. and Mrs. Binns, and Mrs. Rodenstein.
