WALK-A THON

Ken Heydt, Walk-a-thon Chairman, has announced that the March of Dimes Walk was successful, earning almost $21,000. The Walk, originally scheduled for March 31, was held April 7, because of Hazleton's unusual final snow.

The 1300 walkers began at Harmon Geist Stadium, and walked around the whole Hazleton area, encompassing 22 miles. At strategic points there were rest stops, where the walkers were served orange drink and cookies, and at lunch, peanut butter and jelly sandwiches. The State Police, the West Hazleton Police, the Ambulance and Rescue Trucks, and "Men in the Crowd" directed traffic and took care of any injuries the walkers incurred.

Ken Heydt would like to extend special thanks to Mr. Dunlop and Mr. Crone, Food and Housing employees, Everitt F. Binns, and Dr. Covert for their help in making the Walk-a-thon a success. He would also like to thank Joe A., Pete F., Joe Z., Merc and Crazy Joe for their support and help. Last, but not least, the unmention many must also be thanked, for without them, there would have been no Walk-a-thon.

READING FESTIVAL HELD

The Sixteenth Annual Dramatic Reading Festival, sponsored by the Belles-Lettres Literary and Cultural Society, was held in the Highacres Room of the Library April 5.

Awards were presented by Mr. Gene Collins to Donna Bayer, Anne of a Thousand Days by Maxwell Anderson; Aaron Schiller, "Exerpts from Lenny Bruce," by Lenny Bruce; Donny Serfass, The Little Prince, by Antoine de St. Exupery; and David Stein, "The Euphic Question," by Kurt Vonnegut. Linda Gallagher presented certificates to the winners and to the following participants: John Bigelow, Joseph Caputo, Mary Kaye Gwiazdowski, Lori Hackmeister, Patricia Hastie, Robert Keifer, Charles Novitsky, Anthony Seo, Thomas Urosvich, and Dale Walck.

Professor Andrew Kafka, faculty advisor, and Linda Gallagher, vice-president, made the welcome remarks. John Busher served as the Master of Ceremonies. The judges were Gene Collins of the Fine Arts Council of the Greater Hazleton Area; Professor Earnest Haeussler, of the campus faculty; George Miller, a member of the Tamaqua Times-News; Dr. Monty Montjar, of the campus faculty; and Miss Letitia Valleri, secretary, Board of Governors of the Hazleton Art League.

Refreshments were served by Professor Elizabeth Bodenstein and Nancy Meiser, advisor and president respectively, of the Theta Sigma Pi Sorority.

Members of the planning committee were John Busher, Linda Gallagher, Donny Serfass, Chris Slivka, and Dale Walck.

FRATERNITY INDUCTIONS

The Psi Pi chapter is Alpha Phi Omega is happy to announce the induction of three new members. David Trumbauer and Barry Jais were installed as regular members and Dr. David, Campus Director, was installed as an honorary member. David Trumbauer was also installed as secretary. The installation took place Tuesday, April 9, after the regular business meeting. The Fraternity would like to thank all those people who helped make the hoagie sale a success, especially those who bought more than one. Also many thanks to Mr. Dunlop for allowing us to use the residence hall.

SORORITY ACTIVITIES

The Theta Sigma Pi Sorority has many activities planned for the upcoming weeks. Their first big project is collecting for the Cancer Society this month. Anyone who is interested in helping the Sorority can contact Nancy Meiser. On April 20 the Sorority is holding a bake sale at the Boston Store, and will later in the month co-sponsor a car wash with the Fraternity. On May 9 the Sorority will sponsor a dance after the Awards Banquet at Stan Genetti's in the Pennsylvania Room. There will also be a Mother-Daughter Tea on May 12 which is open to any girl on campus and her mother.
