this will last only until their version of "Rock-a-My Soul." And, of course, we can rely on the Krazee 8's for surprises.

We have a really big show, folks; come one out and partake of our endeavors. For music can be your body's way of giving your soul an audience.

RECITAL TO BE GIVEN

The Department of Music of the College of Arts and Architecture at the Pennsylvania State University announces a voice recital by Mr. Joseph Jumpeter, accompanied by Prof. M. Leonard Shaevel to take place Saturday, May 11, at 8:00 P.M. in C-1.

The recital will consist of both classical and son-temporary selections. For the classical portion, Mr. Jumpeter and Prof. Shaevel will present a recitative and aria from B. F. Handel's opera Samson; three arias from works of Antonio Vivaldi; and selections from Schumann's Dichterliebe and Ralph Von William's Pilgrim's Progress. Popular numbers will include three traditional spirituals and a medley of songs from Fiddler on the Roof. The Bacharach-David numbers were arranged for the occasion by Prof. Shaevel.

The public is invited to attend.

ALUMNI CLUB HOLDS DINNER

The Penn State Alumni Club held a dinner on Tuesday, April 23, in the Gus Genetti Motor Lodge. The dinner was to celebrate the Fortieth Anniversary of the founding of the Hazleton Campus.

Special guests were seven members of the Freshman Class of 1934 and Dr. William David, campus director. Plaques were presented to each of the honored guests. The high point of the program occurred when Dr. Spallone from Virginia donated $5,000 over a ten year period for a scholarship to needy students attending the campus.

Officers for the Alumni Club are Alexis Neapolitan, President; Dominic Lundro, Vice-President; Harold Aurand, Vice-President; Betty Harbor, Secretary; Art Snyder, Treasurer; and Susan Kisthart, Assistant Secretary/Treasurer.
