

NEWSPAPER AWARDS

Three members of the 19-73-74 Collegian staff have been awarded Certificates of Merit from the 1974 College Press Competition of St. Bonaventure University.

These awards were presented to William Michael for his sports coverage, and Linda Gallagher and Mary Angie DeLazio for their columns. Ms. DeLazio was the editor of the Sports column, and Ms. Gallagher was Managing Editor of the Collegian and author of of the popular column entitled "Edna, the Poor Student's Philosopher."

Every year the St. Bonaventure University holds its annual College Press Day and presents awards to the members of college newspaper staffs from all over the nation. An Award of Excellence, a Special Citation, and a Certificate of Achievement are the three highest honors. Certificates of Merit are also awarded to those students whom the judges feel deserve honorable mention for noteworthy work in their field of specialization.

Awards were presented in the categories of Art, Editorial Writing, Feature Writing, News Writing, Photography, Sports Writing and Column Writing. Awards are also presented to the outstanding college newspaper and to outstanding newspapers in three classifications.

LIBRARY NEWS

During Fall Orientation, the library was very busy with its own orientation by making available many of its resources and materials for the new Freshmen. Mrs. Ferry and the Library Staff wish to thank all the students who helped make Library Orientation a success.

The tapes that were shown at orientation are being set up in the seminar room for the benefit of those who could not hear them, or for those who missed the presentation.

The library now has "C.-A.R.", the Career and Academic Resource Corner on the main floor of the library. Mr. James White is responsible for initiation this helpful service. You will find college catalogues, vocational Guidance Information, the tapes on the colleges within the University, and more. Come, look and listen!

Library hours have been posted from Sunday through Thursday evenings 6:00 P.M. to 9:30 P.M. and from Monday through Friday 8:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. Come in and adopt your own private little study carrel and study!

Please check out books, periodicals, records, pamphlets, and cassette players at the circulation desk. Your cooperation is needed in returning materials on time so that everyone will have an opportunity to use the library materials.

The Library also publishes lists of books and other materials twice a month. These publications can be found on the new book displays.

ALUMNI CORNER

by Donna Marie Bayer

Mr. James Harner of Harner's Jewelers at 37 East Broad Street in Hazleton was interviewed for this issue's Alumni Corner. Mr. Harner was born in Berwick and attended high school there.

After graduating from high school Mr. Harner enrolled in Pre-Med and dropped that major because he received a "C" in organic chemistry. He then switched to a food science major. Food science involves the effects of processing on foods and the actual practice of food processing. While in this course, Mr. Harner worked as a lab technician at Penn State. This, he confided, was a great asset to his studies, for, in his work, he was surrounded with men who were able to help him with his courses, and was at times actually involved in research on the material he was studying at the time. While he was at University Park, Mr. Harner also did research on cows and goats and biosynthesis.

After graduating from Penn State, Mr. Harner went to work for a research lab of the Carnation Corporation in Los Angeles. From there, he was employed by a division of Abbott, where he was involved in the development of a non-fat coffee creamer, which was an offshoot of the coffee
