

CHORUS CAPERS

The Hazleton Campus Chorus, under the direction of Mr. Jumpeter made its first appearance November 3rd at University Park. The members went down Saturday and enjoyed All-U Day, then on Sunday sang "Every Time I Feel the Spirit" at the Chapel Service. The Altoona Campus was there also and performed "Beautiful Saviour". The two choruses then joined the Chapel Choir to sing "The Old-Hundredth Psalm".

The second appearance made was on Monday, November 11. The chorus travelled to Wilkes-Barre to get two songs taped for Channel 16. They will be shown some time on Christmas Day. So watch your local listings for the right time.

The Joypipers, a group of female singers from Chorus, are busily preparing for an appearance during the Christmas Concert. They will perform at the Lookout House on December 7.

Tentative plans are being made for a possible trip to Disney World. The Chorus would perform there, but would also get a chance to see all the famous sights. This would need a combined effort of every member to raise money.

The biggest event before the Christmas break will be the Christmas Concert. The members are busily practicing a variety of songs to make this concert enjoyable to everyone. The main piece of the show will be the "African Mass." It will be held on December 14 in C-1 at eight o'clock. Admission is free.

TRIAL BY JURY

Tryouts for the spring production of Gilbert and Sullivan's operetta "Trial By Jury" will be held December 16, 17, and 18. "Trial By Jury" is a one-act comic operetta, which means that it contains no spoken dialogue. Students need not be a member of the chorus to try out for the operetta.

There are three major roles in the show. The male lead is Edwin, the Defendant, a tenor-Baritone, who is a lady's man, Casanova, Don Juan type. The female lead is Angelina, the Bride. She wants to get married, and will stop at nothing to get her wish. She is a soprano. The Judge, a Bass, is egotistical, an older man who has an eye for "charming damsels." There are also parts for Lawyers, Baritones, who are typical attorneys. There is also an Usher, who is a Bass, a jury consisting of 12 men, and 8 Bridesmaids. A Chorus made up of Bridesmaids and jurors will also be on stage.

Requirements for the major roles include an ability to sing and to express the emotions and moods of the characters through singing and acting. For more information, see Mr. Jumpeter in the South Building.
