

CHORUS

Another feature is delightfully amusing number called "The Walrus and the Carpenter." The words to this piece are adapted from Lewis Carroll's famous poem in Alice in Wonderland.

In addition to the work on the spring concert, a fund-raising campaign, sponsored by the HCC is now underway. The purpose of this campaign is to finance a proposed trip to Florida sometime in May. The first project will be a hoagie sale, and orders can be given to any member of the HCC. The hoagies will be sold for 85¢, and will be delivered either Feb. 26th or 27th.

Jumpeter and Shaevel

On Sat. April 19, Mr. Joseph Jumpeter, music director and instructor at the Hazleton Campus, will be presenting a voice recital in C-1. Mr. Leonard Shaevel, will accompany him on piano.

An ensemble will be featured consisting of: Dr. and Mrs. Covert, and Mr. and Mrs. Breckenridge, on recorders; Miss Christie Lerch, on the harpsichord; Miss Lucy Ann Santarsiero, on the violin; Miss Chris Slovik, on the organ; and Miss Evelyn Ashenfelter, on the bassoon. Also, a select group of the Hazleton Campus Chorus will present a medley of modern songs.

Selections of music are made from each of the Renaissance, Baroque, Romantic, and Modern periods.

Among the pieces to be presented at the recital, is an aria from Bach's Cantata 34 entitled "Wohl Euch." This is usually performed on Pentacostal Sunday, and Bach makes use of material from his marriage cantata in this piece. Although originally accompanied by flutes, recorders will be substituted in the presentation on April 19.
