

SGA ELECTIONS TODAY

HAZLETON CAMPUS LIBRARY
PENNSYLVANIA STATE UNIVERSITY

VOTE

The Highacres Collegian

PUBLISHED BY STUDENTS OF THE HAZLETON CAMPUS OF THE PENNSYLVANIA STATE UNIVERSITY

VOLUME TEN NUMBER SIX

HAZLETON, PENNA., 18201

APRIL 4, 1975

Allocation Will Affect Penn State Service and Costs

The following is a statement by Dr. John Oswald, President of the Pennsylvania State University:

I am deeply concerned at the harsh implications for Penn State of the budget recommendations presented in the Governor's budget message for 1975-76.

I thoroughly understand the status of the economy and the strained estimates of revenues in the Commonwealth and Penn State, of course, expects to carry its appropriate share of adjustments to live with the economic realities.

However, the Governor's budget allocations for Penn State of $123.6 million for 15 months is actually less than $100 million on a 12-month basis whereas 114.5 million was requested as absolutely essential for the coming 12-month period. A realistic and stern analysis of the Governor's proposal contains four most serious implications for Penn

Continued Page 4

Walkathon Committee Makes Plans

The annual March of Dimes Walkathon will be held this year on April 13. Registration takes place 7:30 a.m. at the Harmon Geist Stadium. Application deadline for all walkers is April 5.

The money from this Walkathon helps nearly 250,000 people in the NE Pa. chapter. The March of Dimes, since it's conquering of polio in the '50's, has been concentrating

Continued Page 5

Fine Arts Festival Planned

To Be Held at Highacres

The Greater Hazleton Area Fine Arts Festival is to be held at Highacres for the very first time this year.

The festival will take place over the weekend of May 9 through the 11, and will include such events as a juried art/photography show, a juried art show, a juried photography show, an original craft exhibit, a sidewalk art exhibition and sale, and a juried art show.

Everitt Binns is Highacres representative to the Fine Arts Council

Collegian Appoints New Editorial Board

The Collegian Board of Directors has chosen three members of the Editorial Board for the year of 1975-1976.

Joyce Barton, a third term student residing in the dorm, has been chosen to take the position of Executive Editor, now held by Christie Tito. Ms. Barton is majoring in English with a writing option.

Francis Grencavich has been named Business Manager for the Highacres Collegian, replacing Donna Baver in the advertising department.

Francie is a third term history major.

For further information on positions for next year's staff, please turn to page 14.

Inside The Collegian

Letters to the editor...	Page 2
Chipper.....	Page 8
Book Reviews.....	Page 7
Chipper.....	Page 8
Letters to the editor....	Page 2
Library News.....	Page 13
Movie Review.....	Page 13
RH Corner.....	Page 7
SGA Corner.....	Page 8
Sports.....	Page 11, 12
SUB Corner.....	Page 9