

Published By The Students Of The Hazleton Campus Of The Pennsylvania State University

SUB. WITHOUT PLANS FOR BIG CONCERTS IN NEW GYM

By John Sengle

At the present time the Student Union Board has no plans for any large scale concerts according to Ray Kissner, President of the S.U.B. Kissner attributed this mainly to the limited operating budget he has to work with. To get an established group would probably cost about $1,000 to $2,000 and in Kissner's words, "We just don't have that kind of money to work with."

Although the S.U.B. has no plans at the present time to schedule large-scale concerts in the new Highacres Physical Education Building, Dr. William David, Campus Director, said, "Yes, having concerts in the new gym of the sit-down type is definitely possible."

Continued on page 11

STUDENTS POSE QUESTION

IN S.G.A. ELECTION:

WHO DID I VOTE FOR?

By Douglas Heller

During the Student Government Association election held on January 7 to elect two Student Senators, The Highacres Collegian tried to determine if the student voters knew the candidates that they had voted for, their qualifications, and the reason for voting the way they did. Students were asked, "Do you know the person you voted for, as anything more than a name?" and "Why did you vote for the person or people that you voted for?" Since inside the collegian

Continued on Page 5

Collegian Personality.....p.6
David Takes Action.....p.5
Editorials.....p.2
Exciting New Contest.....p.4
From the Desk of the S.G.A.
President.....p.3
Music.....p.7
Sports.....p.13

LANE SPEAKS TO 700

Exclusive Collegian Interview With Mark Lane Page 14

By Elliot Grossman

The foremost critic in the world of the Warren's Commission's report on the John F. Kennedy assassination, Mark Lane, spoke to a crowd of 700 people in the Physical Education Building on Wednesday night, January 19. The lecture was sponsored by The Student Affairs Cultural Series and The Highacres Club Advisory Council. Lane spoke for three hours and his remarks were well received by the crowd, as was apparent by the almost 300 signatures that appeared on a mailgram to Thomas O'Neill, Speaker of the U.S. House of Representatives, asking for a reinvestigation of the Kennedy and King assassinations.

Lane's speech was divided into three parts. His first part, which was the most lengthy portion of his speech, dealt with Lane's opinions of the investigation of the F.B.I., the C.I.A., and the Warren Commission into the Kennedy assassination.

"I believe that the Warren Commission was appointed for the purpose of assuring the American people that a conspiracy never occurred- for proving that Oswald was the lone assassin," said Lane.

However, Lane concluded that Kennedy was shot from two
Continued on Page 8

"I think that through this investigation," said Lane, "we will learn whether or not our elected officials really run the country." (Photo courtesy of Everitt Binns)