

FRESHMAN SURVEY

continued from page 1

of importance, 73% of the men felt it important to become an authority in their field, 65% to be well-off financially, 57% to raise a family, 55% to develop a philosophy of life, 51% to obtain recognition from colleagues, and 48% to help others in difficulty.

Among women, 76% felt it important to help others in difficulty, 71% to become an authority in their field, 69% to develop a philosophy of life, 54% to raise a family, 54% to obtain recognition from colleagues and 43% to be well-off financially.

Men and women agreed that "parents should be discouraged from having large families" with the actual breakdown being 64% of the males and 49% of the females.

The agreeing breakdown of students expecting to have no children was 13% men and 9% women. The largest group of students, 50% of both men and women expect to have two children with 24% of the women and 18% of the men expecting to have three children and 9% of the men and 6% of the women expecting four children. 4% of the men and women expect to have an one child.

Compared to 18% of the women, 38% of the men surveyed agreed that "the activities of married women are best confined to the home and family." However, outside of the home 89% of the men and 96% of the women agreed that "women should receive the same salary and opportunities for advancement as men in comparable positions."

The survey revealed that 81% of the men and women at Highacres cited being able to get a better job as a reason to go to college, with 57% including being able to make more money as another reason.

"I still say five minutes isn't enough time to get from one class to another."

Collegian Board Appointed for '77-78

David Kraft has been appointed Editor-in-Chief of THE HIGHACRES COLLEGIAN to be effective April 22, 1977. Kraft (3rd term-Journalism) has served on THE COLLEGIAN news and photography staff since September, 1976 and on the Board of Directors as Editorial Assistant and Club News Editor since March, 1977.

"I hope to increase the scope of THE COLLEGIAN by being more responsive to student's interests and concerns," said Kraft. "Also, I hope to feature articles reflecting the attitudes and problems of the students. I will strive to provide better photography, news articles, and columns to improve

THE COLLEGIAN as a campus communications media."

Kathy Rusinko was named News Editor effective April 1, 1977. Rusinko (3rd term-Liberal Arts) served on the news staff since September, 1976 and on the Board of Directors as Club News Editor from December, 1976 to February, 1977. "I think the news staff has been effective and efficient this year," said Rusinko, "and I want to keep it that way."

Patricia Marsh will remain on the Board as Layout Editor. Marsh (3rd term-Journalism) has served in that capacity since December, 1976 and has worked on the news and sports staff.

If you like to write, think about being a member of THE HIGHACRES COLLEGIAN staff next year. A lot of work and a lot of FUN.

CAMPUS BOOKSTORE
OPEN 8AM-4PM

WE HAVE SPRING CLOTHES