Nancy Klotsko is the president-elect of the Student Government Association. Nancy is from Chantilly High School in Chantilly, Virginia and is an education major here at Penn State. Nancy was very active in Student Government in high school and is continuing to be very active in Highacres Government. Nancy will officially take office when she is sworn in at the 1977-78 Awards Banquet.

Klotsko feels that the major function of S.G.A. is to serve as a "liaison between the administration and the students." She said that the S.G.A. deals with activities that some students are unaware of.

Klotsko cited a number of goals for the year ahead. Her most important goal is communication. Klotsko said that the present communication situation between S.G.A. and the faculty and administration is good; but she wants to improve the link between S.G.A. and the students. "Students have to use us," she added. "It would be nice if more students would come to us with their problems." Another goal Klotsko spoke of was "squawk boxes". These squawk boxes would be used so that students could voice their suggestions, comments, or compliments concerning the S.G.A. projects and policies.

Klotsko cited that S.G.A. first major project will be 1977 orientation. "We want to make the freshmen less scared and more comfortable here at Highacres." Klotsko said that orientation is S.G.A.'s first opportunity to get students interested and involved with life at the Hazleton campus.

Klotsko spoke of a number of ideas she is considering for next

Brian Horwith is the president-elect of the Highacres Student Union Board. Brian is an electrical engineering major from Parkland High School.

Horwith feels that the major purpose of the Student Union Board is to "enhance the social atmosphere of the campus." According to Horwith, this can be accomplished through a variety of student activities including annual events such as Las Vegas nite and by regularly planned dances and coffeehouses. Thorough student involvement in activities, Horwith feels that the campus can become a more socially active place to live.

Horwith spoke of the function of S.G.A. in relation to S.U.B., "S.G.A. is an essential organization on campus and may make suggestions or present ideas and policies before S.U.B. to get their view in different situations."

Horwith talked about some of the ideas he has for next year's Student Union Board. He plans to continue to build on S.U.B.'s good communication system and to enhance the communication system between campus clubs and organizations.

Horwith also stressed the need for "solid organization" behind every activity and pro-
