Nittany Lion quarterback Chuck Fusina tied two school records against Maryland on September 27th. Fusina's 19 completions matched totals by John Hufagel (Tennessee, 1971) and Pete Liske (UCLA, 1963). Fusina also tied Hufagel with 531 passing yards in two consecutive games. Hufagel threw for 271 yards against Boston College and 260 yards against Pitt in the final two games of the 1972 season. Fusina had 245 yards against Houston and 286 against Maryland.

Kicker Matt Bahr has not missed in 17 attempts this year. He's 11-for-11 in extra points and has been successful in all six field goal attempts. Bahr's six straight successful field goal tries breaks his brother Chris' record of five consecutive successful attempts in the same season (1974).

Drama Club Production to be held at Highacres

By Sue Ringes
Collegian Staff Writer

Come one, come all to this year's Fall Drama Production, "The Imaginary Invalid", by Moliere. The play will be presented October 26 through October 29 at 8:00 p.m. in the Highacres Commons.

Behind the scenes are: Director, Mr. Breckenridge; Assistant Director, Randine Matthews; Producer, Mr. White; Assistant Producer, Keller Taylor; Lighting Director, Dr. Orbin; and Dr. Frankel, Mrs. Moyer and various students assisting with the production.

"The Imaginary Invalid," Moliere's last play, is one of prose and broad comedy. It is a satire on the power of jargon, especially medical jargon. It moves from the restrictiveness of Argon's (the imaginary invalid) household to the complete release in a farcical closing ceremony. The set abounds with enema syringes and double meanings. If the play proves to be as funny in full production as in rehearsal form, this is one play you should not miss.

Students participating in the production are cast as follows; Paul Irwin as Argon, the imaginary invalid; Renee DiSabella as Tionette, the impudent maid; Sybil

McGuire as Angelique, the marriageable daughter; Randy Hoffman as Angelique's lover, Cleante; Ron Rinemiller as Beralde, Argon's wiser brother; Rita Bell as Beline, Argon's scheming wife; Michelle Baymor as Louison, Argon's younger daughter; Brad McNab as Dr. Diafoirus, who wants Angelique to marry his son; Butch Lamont as Thomas Diafoirus, a rather dense young man; Steve Flynn as Dr. Purgon, a diabolical physician; John Lewis as Mr. Fleurant, a stuffy apothecary; Randy McKinstry as Mr. DeBonnefoi, a fussy notary; plus a host of gypsies, doctors and apothecaries played by Sandy Randis, Karen Wever, Greg Rodgers, Theresa Weilgorz, Wade Bullard, and Mark Dworsky.

"The Imaginary Invalid" is the first of three productions to be held this year at Highacres. The second will be a student-faculty seminar Winter Term, and a third performance during Spring Term. Interested individuals need not be a member of the drama club to participate in any of the play performances.
