

RHC

Bill Snyder

Spring term has opened with a flurry of changes in RHC personnel. Al Cwalina resigned as President of RHC effective the end of winter term, so that he could concentrate his efforts toward his new role as Resident Assistant. The Residence Hall Council would like to thank Al for his leadership in the past, and we extend to him good luck for the future. Another change is that I, Bill Snyder, am the new RHC President, Paul Huffman has taken over duties of Vice-President, also Terri Vielgorz, Brian Cassidy and Dave Erb have filled committee positions left vacant by students who are now at State College.

If you have missed any RHC events, you've missed a lot of fun. On March 16, the Residence Hall Council in conjunction with the Student Union Board, held a St. Patrick's Day Coffee House featuring Bob Doyle. It was held in the dorm lobby. All those who attended (Poles, Slovaks, Italians and even a few Irish), had a great time. Soon after the Coffee House began, some students danced the Irish jig with a little of the Can-Can thrown in. A little later in the evening, an impromptu square dance started. It featured special guest musician, Mr. Archie Warnok playing the guitar.

Even if you missed the Coffee House, there are still opportunities to have fun at RHC events. We are now planning our third annual Road Rally which will be held on April 28th. This year's rally will probably be the most challenging of any undertaking a student (or faculty member), will have at Highacres.

Another day on the RHC calendar is April 4th. On this day, elections (Continued on Page 8)

CHORUS

Jill Moody

The Chorus is working hard this term to put on their second large concert this year. The first, a Medieval Musicales Feast, was held on February 4th and 5th and was a tremendous success. Both the audience and the performers enjoyed it immensely. Plans are already being made for a similar concert next year.

But the Chorus now can not worry about that. They are working to learn the music for their next performance, the "Truth of Truths," a biblical rock concert. This concert will be given on Campus on Sunday, May 6th, and will close the Greater Hazleton Creative Arts Festival. Come listen that day to hear the great sound our campus chorus creates.

Circle K

John Pollack President

As my term in office begins to come to an end, a few thoughts come to mind that I would like to share with you. What I have to say will concern the freshman more than anyone else; however, the sophomores could also pay a little bit of attention.

A great many students on this campus and on all college campuses for that matter are missing out on a great educational opportunity. This opportunity is there for all students. It is one of the few things offered at Penn State for which there is no charge; yet, very few take advantage of it. You are now probably wondering. Well, what is this fantastic opportunity? It can be summed up in one word, experience. The experience comes with involvement in campus clubs and activities.

The experience I have gained and the things that I have learned, will stay with me long after all of Prof. Skimbo's words have been forgotten. When I first joined Circle K as a freshman, I was a very shy and quiet person; those of you that know me that this is no longer the case. I suppose, however, that some of you wish it were. As president of Circle K I have learned how to deal with problems that have come up at a moment's notice. If I had not chosen to become active in our campus, this whole avenue of opportunity would have been closed to me.

Beginning this week Circle K will be having a membership drive to bring new freshmen into the club. I urge you take advantage of this opportunity. Circle K needs new people to run the club next year, and most of all you need Circle K.

For those of you that still do not know what Circle K is all about, please allow me to explain. We are a service organization dedicated to both the campus and the community. Our motto is "We Build."

What have we done this year? Well, I am glad that you asked that question. Since September the club has been making monthly visits to the Lutheran Home to visit the shut ins. At Christmas, 18 Circle K's manned a bell for the Salvation Army for an entire day. The donations received were used by the Salvation Army to bring Christmas to those who would have otherwise had none. Last month we hosted a Bowl-A-Thon for the Arthritis Foundation. We raised over $2000.00 for this great cause. These are but a few of the many things that the club has done this year.

Circle K is a national organization and being such we travel to different schools during the course of the year. One thing I have learned from these trips is that the Hazleton Campus has a great deal to offer. This campus does not exist for the Davids or the Boyles; it exists for you, the student. Make the most of it and reach for all that you can.

Coming Attractions:

APRIL 9-13

Daffodil sale for the American Cancer Society.

APRIL 21

Help in the construction of a physical fitness trail at Moon Lake Park (This is a joint project with other Circle K, Kiwanis, and Key Clubs of the area).

APRIL 30

Italian National Fencing Team vs. the American Fencing Team in the gym. (This is a joint project of the Hazleton Kiwanis Club and the Penn State Campus).

Congratulations and best wishes to:

Sue Janosky, SGA's new vice president and Kathy Peters, newly appointed treasurer of SGA.

On Wednesday, March 14th at 7:00 in the Highacres room, seven pledges of Alpha Phi Omega became brothers during a ceremonial procedure. The new brothers of the FRAT are as follows: John Shedleski, Joseph Zuk, Robin Tacker, Kevin Phillips, Larry Mancini, Jeffery Carson and Steve Kadar. Special thanks to our advisors Joseph Dandois and Donald Lyons for their participation in the invitation. I would also like to thank our regional advisor John Zuk from Allentown who attended our induction. Immediately proceeding the ceremony John Zuk presented a certificate to the fraternity in recognition of its fifth anniversary on this campus.

Plans are being made for a hoagie sale on campus during spring term to raise money for the FRAT. The major service project for spring term is volunteering their help in running the March of Dimes Walk-A-Thon. All the members of Alpha Phi Omega are participating. The Walk-A-Thon will be held on April 29th. If you'd like to volunteer your services for the March of Dimes Walk-A-Thon sponsored by HCAC, ask any Club President about the activity and where you can help.

SUB

By Rob Blyler
SUB President

Spring is here and so is the Student Union Board's "Spring Week." Spring Week will begin on April 16 and continue until the 20th.

Spring Week will be kicked off by a jello slurping contest followed on Tuesday by a concert by the Pennsylvania State University Brass Chorale.

Wednesday is the Hazleton Campus' annual "Apathy Day" which will be highlighted with a concert by FLY BY NIGHT. Fly By Night is a rock band from central Pennsylvania. They have played back up recently for the Outlaws and are currently an upcoming band and may possibly start playing back up for the Eagles.

Thursday is the Second Annual Agony Hill Climb. All sprinters and non sprinters on campus should get themselves in shape now for a grueling dash up the hill we know as "Agony."

Friday will be a campus picnic at the Student Study Court, which is adjacent to the Physical Education Building. We are asking that students bring or buy their lunch and bring it up to the Study Court.

Students might also wish to note on their calendars that May 5th and 6th is the Hazleton Creative Arts Festival on campus.

The Student Union Board is always open to any prospective member. Just drop in at our meeting in the Commons at 6 p.m. every Wednesday night. Your help will be more than welcomed.

participation. If you think this has been a bad year for campus activities perhaps it is because you have not participated in any. Why not study early in the week and take the time Wednesday night to get involved in your campus? We need your help in making this campus fun and exciting.

Fly By Night's complete song list may be found outside of C-1 along with a picture of the band. The concert will begin April 18th at 8 p.m. Tickets are $2.00 in advance and $2.50 at the door. Tickets may be purchased from any SUB member two weeks prior to the concert. See you at the concert.
