

Highacres Collegian

Volume 15, Number 5

HAZLETON CAMPUS PENNSYLVANIA STATE UNIVERSITY

April 1980

Arts Festival— May 2, 3 and 4

Juried art, craft and photography will again be exhibited in the indoor display area during the Creative Arts Festival. Work in all three areas and in a variety of media will be displayed throughout the three-day festival in the lower level of the library at the Hazleton Campus of the Pennsylvania State University.

Through juried exhibits, the Festival Committee seeks to encourage and reward artists producing the best work in the three areas. Cash prizes totaling over $1,200 will be awarded to outstanding artists, craftsmen and photographers. Art entries are eligible for three awards and a purchase award prize. Photographs will receive first and second awards in both color and black and white. Crafts will be eligible for single awards in six categories based upon media.

Work submitted for the Juried Exhibition should have been completed within the last 18 months prior to the Festival. No work will be accepted which has been shown in a previous Creative Arts Festival. Further specifications for art, craft and photography have been set by the Festival Committee and will be listed in the 1980 brochure.

Brochures for this year's festival "Arts—Out of this World" are now being prepared and will be available shortly at the Greater Hazleton Chamber of Commerce and several other locations. Chairman for this year's indoor display is Elayne Holland Kavalecs. Inquiries may be directed to the Chamber office 455-1508. Last year's festival attracted over 20,000 people to the Exhibits and performances. "Arts—Out of this World" will be held May 2, 3 and 4 at the Hazleton Campus of the Pennsylvania State University, and is jointly funded by the Greater Hazleton Fine Arts Council and the Pennsylvania Council on the Arts.

Purchase awards from the 1974-79 juried shows are now on display throughout the community at the following locations: now through March 14, Hazleton Area Public Library; March 17-April 18, Peoples Bank (Laurel Mall and Church Hill Mall Branches); April 21-May 4, Hazleton National Bank and Deisroths.

WHCB airs Spring term

It is the third term at Highacres, and W.H.C.B. is now on the air. The delay lasted two terms due to an inadequate number of members, but Larry Mancini and Steve French, station managers, and Eric Powers, vice-president, have managed to arouse enough interest to start the club. Each member has contributed much to the survival of the station. Staff members have helped by donating many albums. When the club first started, some of the original ten members had worked up to thirty hours a week. Now, however, each of the twenty-five current members works at least eight hours a week as a D.J.

Planning is already beginning for the '80 Fall Term. Steve French stated that if the desired allocations are received, a new broadcasting system with an increased output (.10 watts to 5 watts) will be purchased. This increase will enable the club to broadcast to the entire Hazleton area.

DJ Lenny Cobrusco works diligently on WHCB.

Highacres Players perform tonight

The Lady's Not For Burning, adapted and directed by Jay Breckenridge, will be presented by the Highacres Players on April 23, 24, 25 and 26. The production will be in the Commons Theatre, and show time every evening is 8 pm. Tickets are available in the Commons and the Dining Hall during lunch. Student tickets are free and all others are $1.

This comedy, written by Christopher Fry, is set in about the 15th century. The play begins with Thomas, a soldier recently returned from the war, asking to be hanged. Tyson, the Mayor, refuses to hang him because the "gallows are not a charitable institution." Later, Jennet, the accused witch, enters the scene while trying to escape the angry mob in the street. Meanwhile, Richard, the County Clerk, falls in love with Alizon, Humphrey's bride-to-be. More complications arise when Thomas and Jennet begin to fall in love, also.

Members of the cast include Jeff Beach as Richard, Finn Petersen as Thomas Mendip, Rose Schwenk as Mrs. Cartright, Debbie Williams as Alizon Eliot, Tim Kelly as Nicholas Devise, Nora Reichard as Margaret Devise, Bruce DelValle as Humphrey Devise, Bill Warg as Hebble Tyson, Denise Goodman as Jennet Jourdemayne, Martha Beharry as The Abbess, Joe Marchesani as Edward Tappercoom, Richelle Fracke as The Maid, and Nik Millen as Matthew Skippis.

Glen Puhak is acting as Production Manager, and Mark Peterson designed the stage for The Lady's Not For Burning. Steven Brubaker, Tony Olmo, and Chris Nash are members of the Stage Crew. Beth Howard is the Costume Coordinator.

Chorus to sing fine arts week

After a successful performance in February, the Penn State-Hazleton Campus Chorus, under the direction of Mr. Joe Jumpeter, is currently working on another promising production to be performed next month following the Fine Arts Festival. The program will include song selections from the Broadway musical, Godspell, along with a live orchestra and dances choreographed by Paul Mulhern. Soloists featured in the production and the numbers they will be singing are Prepare Ye—Jon Weaver; Save The People—Mark Peterson; Day By Day—Lisa Waltman; Bless The Lord—Lisa Haffner; All Good Gifts—Bruce Johnstone and Joanne Moerschbacher; Turn Back Of Man—Roberta Kuchera; By My Side—Lisa Ragazzi and Peggy Hazen; We Beseech Thee—Terry Turko; On The Willows—Art Freas, Denise Goodman, and Greg Dodson.

Other members included in the production are Mary Beharry, Karen Belusko, Roberta Bronson, Wendy Eckert, Cindy Fagan, Jeffier Helock, Sandra Humenick, Greg Keiper, Dawn Mace, Sandy McCoy, Paul McDermott, Gretchen Oberst, Kathy Peters, Julia Smulligan, Tom Stewart, Bill Warg, Mark Warmkessel, Doug Werner and Debra Williams.

If you would like to see the show, come to the Phys. Ed Building on May 4, the last day of the Fine Arts Festival. The program begins at 5:50 p.m. Admission is $1.00 and if you're a PSU student with ID, you can see it free.

The show promises to be very entertaining and to quote a somewhat biased critic, "It's going to be dynamite!"

Highacres students elect SGA Senators

Together with the end of the 1979-'80 school year comes the end of the terms of offices of the Highacres SGA. Retiring President Lisa Ragazzi has demonstrated true leadership to all Penn State students throughout this past year. Recently, elections were held, and new officers were chosen. Succeeding Miss Ragazzi is Mike Ford and his right-hand-man, Mario Rosato. Also elected were the following SGA Senators: Martha Beharry, Finn Peterson, Bill Warg, Jon Weaver and Karen Wertke.

SGA will hold the annual Awards Banquet on May 9. Music will be provided by the Lear Brothers, and Lobitz's will cater the gala event. A limited number of tickets will be available, so please get yours as soon as possible. The Student Government Association is in the process of publishing a pamphlet which will contain a list of places to go in Hazleton. This booklet, which will contain a listing of clothing stores, churches, grovery stores, hairdressers, laundromats, etc., will be available by May. Also, SGA plans to put a housing list on file for reference for students looking for apartments during this summer.

Inside This Issue

Collegian Farewell,
Letter to Editor ..... p. 2

Economic Roundup ..... p. 3

More Vandalism ..... p. 7

Sports Rap ..... p. 8