

Allen Krantz to appear on campus

The Cultural Affairs Program at the Hazleton Campus will present Mr. Allen Krantz, a classical guitarist, on Monday, April 19, 1982 at 7 p.m. in the Residence Hall Lobby.

Mr. Krantz is an exciting young performer who has delighted audiences on both coasts as well as on television and radio. His repertoire ranges from Renaissance to the Twentieth Century, and includes original compositions and music from Japan and India, as well as the traditional European and Latin American guitar literature.

Mr. Krantz holds a Bachelor of Music degree from the San Francisco Conservatory and a Master of Music degree from Stanford University, and has studied with such noted guitarists as Michael Lorimer and Oscar Ghiglia.

He has appeared often on college campuses, community concert series, and in numerous chamber music ensembles and festivals. Recently, he performed duets with Russian mandolinist Emanuel Scheynkman in Carnegie Hall as part of the Soviet Emigre Music Festival.

The performance is scheduled to begin at 7 p.m. in the Residence Hall Lobby and is open to the public.

Vet's club plans tourney

The First Annual Highacres Ping-Pong Tournament is now being arranged by the Veteran's Club on Campus.

The tournament, which will be conducted during the entire Spring Term, is being organized by Sophomore Kevin Sharpe and Freshman Dave Picarelli, president and vice-president of the Vet's Club respectively.

A ladder is now being formed for singles players only. Next Monday, March 29, is the final day to sign up for the tournament.

There will be a $1 entry fee to participate — payable to the Vet's Club. The fee will offset the cost of the first, second, and third place trophies which will be awarded to the contest winners at the end of the term. Also, new ping-pong paddles and a new net will be purchased by the club.

"If the response is good enough," said Sharpe, "there is the possibility of starting a second playoff ladder with two sets of players competing simultaneously."

To sign up for the tournament, see any Vet's Club member or stop by the Veteran's Club office located downstairs in the Commons Building.

Ms. Pat Zubritsky and Mr. Joseph Boyle are advisers of the Highacres Veterans Club.

Blue Band to make area appearance

Look for a night of fine listening on Sunday, April 4, as the Penn State Blue Band comes to Hazleton. The Symphonic band is to perform at 8 p.m. at the Hazleton High School auditorium.

The PSU Symphonic Blue Band is separate from the Marching Band although both bands are under the same leadership, and many students participate in both organizations.

The band has had only four conductors since its inception in 1914. Currently, Dr. Ned C

Deihl is Director of Bands and Professor in the School of Music at Penn State. He assumed leadership in 1975 after serving as Associate Director for the previous twelve years.

The Symphonic Blue Band has performed at several national conferences and has toured throughout the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The Hazleton Penn State Alumni Club is in charge of the arrangements and tickets can be obtained through the Office of Student Affairs.

Artwork goes on display

The Penn State Hazleton Campus Cultural Affairs Program is presenting "Beginning Phases," an exhibit of art work by Ms. Robin Antolick, a local artist. It began on Monday and will continue until next Friday. The exhibit is located on the lower level of the Highacres library and is displayed during regular library hours.

Ms. Antolick attended the Art Institute of Fort Lauderdale, Florida, and received an Associate of Science Degree in Advertising

Design. She is a 1979 graduate of West Hazleton High School and the Commercial Art Department at the Hazleton Area Vo-Tech School.

Since graduation, Ms. Antolick has been working as a free-lance artist specializing in portraiture and is currently setting up a studio/gallery in Nuremberg, PA. She has been a recipient of the Gold Key Award and recently was selected as the winner of the 1982 Hazleton City Logo Competition.
