

B&M

By, Steve Zarick As reprinted from Highacres Collegian, March 26, 1982.

Just the other day I completed my library packet. I must have wasted find an answer. you remember them if about a half of an hour And how about some of you've had English 20. At looking through every in the questions the packet least, I know I won't forget dex to find an answer. has you answer! Does mine. And they wonder Naturally, the required Agusta, Maine have an why I drink the way I do. answer was located in the airport.. I don't want to At the outset of my en- last available indes that I go to Maine. And I see no deavor, the packet seemed c h e c k e d . practical reason for fin- like a reasonable exercise Then there is the "refer ding out when ole Sir Fred that would take about a to" syndrome. Nothing Pritchard was born. I half hour or so to com- agitates me more than to never get birthday presen- plete. I was soon to have a book refer me to ts from their family. And discover, however, that five different places who the hell cares who the these packets just don't before it answers my city manager of Scot- work that way. This questions. You have tsdale, Arizona is.. I'll bet reasonable half-an-hour probably experienced this you they're not sitting exercise turned out to be problem yourself. Say you around out in Arizona won- an at times ridiculous had to find stats on voter dering who the Shamokin four-and-a-half-hour major- registration. You look un- street sweepers are. r project (some people tell der "elections" and the Well, once again, B..M me that their packet was book says see "vote must come to an end. I more to the tune of twelve count" and the book says have to go over to the hours. I suppose I was "see votes cast". This library and see if my l u c k y . ) procedure continues as packet has any (or many) A lesser known clause of many as five o six times errors. Don't worry; I'm prepared for the worst Murphy's Law states, before the book is good and (with a bottle of bourbon). You about index or ready to give an answer. Incidentally, for those of from "You'll find what The "refer to" syndrome you who haven't had the you're looking for in the can even spill over into pleasure of doing the last place you look." other books. A few packet... Ha! Ha! Ha!... have a high time at the Murphy questions in my packet had me "refer to" seven or eight books until I could Highacres library.

A Day In
The Life Of Joe College

Michael Lobb & Anne Barnhart

Buzz....Bang! Joe and some Clorox bleach to make his whites their College slaps the alarm clock, rolls over on his whitest. A half an hour later, he returns to the Sealy Posturpedic mat- laundry room, removes tress and ponders the ad- his now tie-dyed designer vantages of going to his jeans (he forgot that one first period class. doesnt bleach darks), and Although he can think of throws them into the none, he heads for the dryer. Later...when he shower anyway. He removes his clothes from reaches for his bar of the dryer, he finds that Coast deodorant soap and they are all stuck together comes back to life. After in a big ball due to static drying himself with his cling. He suddenly 100. cotton Canon towel, realizes that hee forgot the deodorant so that he can the Cling Free sheets and now be sure when he raises his his clothes won't still smell hand in class fresh three days from now. Running behind schedule Finally done with his as usual, Joe races into the laundry, Joe again returns to his English paper. Because he is exhausted from the toil of laundry, he makes himself a half cup of Maxwell House coffee that WOW-he could have had a V-8! After a day's worth of classes and a weeks worth of writer's cramp, Joe returns to his room and settles down for a long afternoon of studying. That English paper was assigned four days ago, but since it is not due until fifth period tomorrow, he decides to let it go until tonight and wash the mountain of laundry on the floor of his closet that has been piling up for the last two weeks. After using the "eenie, meenie, minie, moe" technique of sorting, Joe nonchalantly slam dunks his darks into a washing machine along with a quarter cup of Era, so that he can savor it to the last drop, but wishes that he had Brim, so that he could have filled it to the rim. But the caffeine made him jumpy so he decides to postpone the paper and get up early tomorrow to write it by fifth period. Instead, he flicks on HBO, because he's an HBO person who doesn't miss out. Before he knows it, his Timex Quartz watch which took a licking but kept on ticking, reads one a.m. After brushing his teeth with Aim, because he likes the taste and brushes longer, Joe College retires to his bed which is still un-made form the morning before.

(photo by L. Bosak)

SWAROVSKI Silver Crystal

The Gift of Spring.

Capture a breath of Spring year 'round with authentic Swarovski® 32% full lead Austrian crystal.

Musselman Jewelers

QUALITY DIAMONDS & JEWELRY
Laurel Mall, Hazleton
(717) 459-0345

HIGHACRES COLLEGIAN