

Saturday, May 4
Alumni Homecoming Day

Coach Paterno Is Coming To Dinner at Highacres

The Golden Anniversary year will reach its climax on Saturday, May 4 with a gala alumni homecoming, featuring dinner with Penn State's veteran head football coach, Joe Paterno.

Plans are in the capable hands of the local Penn State Club with club prexy, Anthony N. Cusatis, and club secretary, Jean Scheers, chairing the affair. It's already obvious that it will be the largest, most elaborate such celebration ever to be held on the Hazleton Campus.

Reservations are pouring in for the banquet which will be served at 7:30 p.m. in the physical education complex following a reception at 6:30 p.m. for Paterno and his entourage. The coach will address the throng that evening after the feast.

The banquet will be catered by Hotel Magee of Bloomsburg and will feature the "Bounteous Buffet" made famous at the "Groaning Board" in the hotel's Publick House dining room.

Delicacies to be included are fried shrimp, shrimp and crab salad, medium rare roast of beef, old-fashioned baked ham, sweet and sour meatballs, baked chicken with mushrooms, and a wide selection of culinary creations built around hot and cold vegetables and fruits.

Desserts will include German chocolate cake, pecan tarts, creme caramel, fresh fruit bowls, chocolate roll cakes, cherry cobblers, and a commemorative 50th anniversary cake.

The cost of a ticket is $25 and includes the social hour, dinner and program. Any profit from tickets will be donated to the Hazleton Campus. In honor of Paterno, the Penn State Club will make a donation to his favorite project, the University's Renaissance Fund.

Tickets are strictly on a first-come first-served basis and persons who purchase tickets will be assigned to tables in the order purchased. To make your reservation, fill out the form below and be sure to enclose your check for the number of places wanted. Tables of eight are available to groups on request.

Club Directors At Work

According to Alumni Homecoming Committee heads Cusatis and Scheers, the entire board of directors of the local Penn State Club is hard at work preparing for the big day. They have announced the following subcommittees:

Tickets - Lee Pilger, Dr. Harold Aurand, Ray Saul and Betty Harlor.

Program - Cusatis, Ray Bast, Jack Fellin, Ron Grapsy and Paul Cerula.

Dinner - Scheers, Caroline Fellin and Anna Jean Leib.

Gift - Jim Reinmiller, Analee Arnold and Ann Schneider.

Transportation and parking - Art Snyder and Dan Capozzelli.

Guests - Woody Petchel and Saul.

Publicity - Saul and Harlor.

Newsletter - Mary Homanko and Aurand.

Door Prize - Caroline Fellin and Alexis Neapolitan.

- WALKING TOURS
of campus will leave from the administration building with student guides every hour on the hour from noon through 3 p.m.
- LUNCH
will be available in Highacres Dining Hall from 11:45 a.m. till 12:30 p.m.
- SOCIAL HOUR
will begin at 6:30 p.m. in Highacres Physical Education Building for those with reservations for Dinner with Paterno.
- ALUMNI HOMECOMING BANQUET
follows social hour in Highacres Physical Education Building - reservations only. After dinner speaker - our own "winningest coach" Joe Paterno.

50th Anniversary Alumni Homecoming Committee

ATTN: Jean Scheers

Penn State Hazleton Campus
Highacres, Pennsylvania 18201

Here is my check for Please reserve places at $25 each for the social hour and banquet with Joe Paterno on Saturday, May 4 at the Physical Education Complex at Highacres.

Name Class
Address State Zip.....