Activities and courses include a variety of outdoor activities ranging from white water rafting to orienteering. Practical training and experience is also available in leadership. Most students find R.O.T.C. not as a dreadful burden but as an opportunity to do something different and exciting.

EDITOR'S NOTE: ON BEHALF OF THE HIGHACRES COLLEGIAN, I WOULD LIKE TO EXTEND MY APOLOGIES TO CAPTAIN RICHARD ARTHUR AND CDT. LT, NEIL NEMETH FOR THE LACK OF REGULARITY IN LETTERING IN THE TITLEHEAD OF THIS ARTICLE. THIS WAS CAUSED BY A SHORTAGE OF A CERTAIN TYPE OF TRANSFER LETTERING USED IN THE BEGINNING OF THE TITLEHEAD.

my position, my knees began to wobble and I soon turned to a weeping mound of jello.

Slowly, I gently picked the child up and held her in my arms, squeezing her to my chest. She couldn't have been more than 5 years old, the same age as my dear Nadia. I thought to myself, "It could have been her! Oh God, what if it had happened to Nadia!" At that moment, I broke into an uncontrollable fit. The tears streamed from my eyes like water rolling over a waterfall. Then I carefully placed the child back in her mother's arms.

I stood there staring at both of them, thanking

God that it wasn't my family that had been slaughtered. This moment in my life was a great shock to me and it has never left me, even to this day.

Quietly, I turned and proceeded to head further into the camp, looking for some visible life forms. I don't know what was going through my mind at that
