

Lions Beat Northampton

By Michelle Carlin

On Friday, November 18th, the Penn State Hazleton Lions played their first basketball game of the season against Northampton Community College. Coach Caccese lead the Lions to victory with a final score of 81 to 74.

The starters for the Hazleton team were: returning sophomore Keith Gardner at guard, freshman Chris Bigger at guard, returning sophomore Jeff Milliken at forward, sophomore Darren Carpenetti at forward / center, and freshman Lamonte Williams at center. The second string players for the Lions are: freshman Shawn Hackman at forward, freshman Jeff Hall at guard, freshman Paul Daniels at guard, freshman Kevin Lucker at guard, sophomore Dave Kupres at forward, freshman Charlie Mulligan at forward, and freshman

Cory Oswald at guard.

Keith Gardner lead the team with 20 total points, followed by Chris Bigger with 16 points, Shawn Hackman with 11 points, and Jeff Milliken, Darren Carpenetti, and Jeff Hall with 10 points each. The player with the highest percentage was Jeff Milliken, who shot 66.7% from the field, and 100% from the foul line. Over all the team did very well with 10 offensive rebounds, 20 defensive rebounds, 7 steals, and 15 assists. There were 8 turnovers in the game.

The two managers for the 1988-89 basketball team are Terry Zingales and Michelle Greene. Dani Geissinger, Linel Reaves, Julie Meckley and Laura Harris are the statisticians for the team.

The turnout Friday night was impressive. Hopefully, the support of the fans will continue throughout the rest of the season. Game schedules are available on the bulletin board outside Dr. Tom Caccese's office in the Phys. Ed. building for anyone who is interested.

Penn State Spirit

Now that basketball season has arrived, it is time for the Hazleton campus to show their spirit by attending the games. However, you should never go to a game empty handed, therefore, bring along your Penn State Collegian fight songs and become part of the game rather than being just a spectator.

The Nittany Lion

Every college has a legend,
Passed on from year to year,
To which they pledge allegiance,
And always cherish dear.
But of all the honored idols,
There's but one that stands the
test,
It's the stately Nittany Lion, The symbol of our best.

Chorus

Hail to the Lion, Loyal and true.
Hail Alma Mater, with your white and blue.
Penn State forever; Mother of men.
Fight for her honor - fight - and
victory again.

There's Pittsburgh with its Panther,
And Penn her Red and Blue.
Dartmouth with its Indian,
And Yale her Bulldog too.
There's Princeton with its Tiger,
And Cornell with its Bear,
But speaking now of victory,
We'll get the Lion's share.

Penn State Alma Mater

For the Glory of Old State
For her founders strong and great,
For the future that we wait,
Raise the song, raise the song.
Sing our love and loyalty
Sing our hopes that, bright and
free,
Rest O Mother, dear, with thee.
All with thee, all with thee.
When we stood at childhood's
gate
Shapeless in the hands of fate,
thou did'st mold us dear old State.
Dear old State, dear old State.
May no act of ours bring shame
To one heart that loves they name,
May our lives help swell thy fame.
Dear old State, dear old State

FANS

By Bill Reader

Penn State Hazleton is a small school, but what we lack in size we make up for in spirit. The dances held in the Commons, Dining Hall, and even the dorm lobbies are usually big successes, as are other social events like movies and pizza parties. Contest lake S.A.D. posters and hall decorating are met with enthusiastic competitors. P.S.U. Hazleton's school spirit can best be exemplified, however, by the turnout by fans at sporting events.

It all started this year with a promising soccer team. At first, few people came. As the year progressed, however, more and more students came to support their team by cheering loudly and boisterously for the team's efforts. The team had a lot of talent, but the fan support helped drive the team to a league championship by giving the Booter's a strong sense of pride, and the desire to give everything their best.

Now, it is the basketball season, and after only a few games the fans are cheering on the team and razzing the opponents. Hopefully, with the combination of a very talented team and good fan support, the basketball team can fare as well as the soccer team.

One thing that can't be said about our fans, however, is that they are nice. Ugly to the last, even when losing, the fans don't give up driving the opponents insane with rage just as the teams don't give up the game. And pity the referee who makes a bad call on Hazleton - - he receives enough mental abuse to cripple an elephant. The fans like a good, hard played game, and cheer when opponents fall under legal (sometimes not so legal) hits. One key attractant to the soccer games was to see how many fouls a certain fullback would commit, and how flagrant these fouls would be. To sum it up, our fans are just plain MEAN!!! And they are appreciated for it.

So if you want to really enjoy a social event at P.S.U. Hazleton, just go to a home basketball game this winter, or even a soccer game next fall, and sit back and watch quality competition both on the field and in the stands. And remember - - Penn State is just as proud of their fans as it is of its athletes.

Bids Run High at Bachelor / Bachelorette

By Jen Urbanski

On November 7, 1988, the Hazleton Highacres campus held the successful Bachelor/Bachelorette Auction sponsored by RHC and SGA. This event began at 9:00 pm and lasted until 10:45 pm. It consisted of 19 participants, some of which were winners of the Best Buns contest held earlier this year, and about 150 people were in the audience. The purpose of the auction was to raise money for the Christmas party to be held on Nov. 29. A large amount of money was raised, with both clubs receiving $98.00. Some contestants were bought for as high as $40.00. The highest bid was $47.00. That couple received a lobster dinner for two at Carmen's Restaurant. Other prizes included, free movie tickets, and the top 3 bids won dinner as well as tickets. This event, along with the Best Buns Contest was one of the biggest successes so far this year. Hopefully, we'll have as much if not more participation from the campus students within the next few months. RHC and SGA would like to thank those who made the auction a big success.

Chorus Goes to Boston!

By Bethann Longenecker

November ninth and tenth, the Highacres Chorus and Drama Club went on a two-day music tour of New England. Twenty chorus members performed first at East Grenby High School, and then in Hollis, New Hampshire. They performed their "Broadway Favorites" including a medley from "Cats" and "West Side Story", "Day by Day" from "Godspell", and "Happiness" from "You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown." They all said they had an awesome time performing, and that the high school students looked up to them, the "big college students." Before coming back to Hazleton, they all spent a day touring Boston. Some went to see "Cheers", while others shopped and ate at Quincy Market. They came back very tired, but satisfied that they had made a good mark in New England, representing Penn State Hazleton.
