Ode to a Suitemate

For all the restful nights when we woke up and couldn't tell what time it was...

For the faithful security guard you were while we were away, checking our files so they wouldn't walk away...

For all the night time shadow boxing for which you've never won...

For all those times we couldn't dispose of our refuse, due to the peculiar shape of a "U"...

For the everlasting whirl of the toilet paper roll, for God's sake leave us some...

For the carpenter which you were never one, but now you must become, because of all the damages done...

For the bathroom that has become your second home, always interrupting when we have to go...

For all those personal goals which you try to achieve, don't let anything cum between you and your dreams...

...your actions remembered, but not forgotten...

Thank You,
 Your
 Roommates

 Mikey,
 I love ya. I am glad we spent a other year together. You've been such a great father to our five kids.
 I hope that our summer is going to be as great as this past year has been. I Love You!

Your Little Poo-
