

best buns

Page 5

AND THE WINNERS ARE...

As you walked around the campus during the month of September you probably noticed many signs displaying "Best Buns Contest." Many thoughts probably sprang to your mind such as "Can they do that" or "Just how much are the contestants going to flaunt." Many of us probably went to the contest not only for entertainment but also for curiosity!

The night began at promptly 9:00 p.m. when excited contestants as well as spectators crowded the commons and showed off their fancy footwork. The sounds of the school radio station blared a variety of many kinds of music. At around 10:10 p.m., the contestants were asked to get themselves ready for the competition. Finally, the event of the night began at 10:30 p.m. To get the crowd reeved up, one student displayed a sign which said "No Skin, No Win." The first to perform were the guys. Strutting up on stage most of them revealed bikini underwear which made the girls go crazy and asking for more.

Brian Bibighaus just has one thing to say "Read between the lines."

Now it was the guys change to go wild. The girls came out wearing from pants to shirts to bikini's all the way down to undergarments. One of the contestants Heather Dilzer says "I never did something like this before, but after this time, I would do it again."

After the contest we were all excited about the results but we had to wait around 15 minutes to hear them. After the votes of the judges were tabulated the contestants came on to the stage for a 2nd time and the winners were announced.

For the Guys:

1st Place - Chris Fowler
2nd Place - Steve Petko

For the Girls:

1st Place - Heather Dilzer
2nd Place - Stacy Wren

All the students surrounded the winners and congratulated them on being reigned Mr. and Miss Best Buns.

