

It was a cool fall day when the Bachelor/Bachelorette Auction was held. On Oct. 24th, 1989 an air of excitement filled the Commons. All the students who wish to buy their "dream date" piled in at 9:00 p.m. This event was sponsored by SGA, OTIS, RHC, and SUB. All the proceeds that were collected were given to Kelly Warner's Father, a Penn State Alumni, who is suffering from a kidney disorder.

2. Lineete

She was bought by Ralph for $47.00, making her the 2nd top bid.

3. Keri Greene (Soph-Pre-Dentistry)
Jen Ryan (Soph-Communications)

HOW DO YOU FEEL ABOUT STUDENTS FROM RESIDENCE HALLS

DRIVING TO CLASS?

I can't blame them, especially if it's raining or worse. Why don't they run some kind of shuttle bus? Why don't they make anymore parking lots close to the classrooms?

-Darren Sims
Off Campus

I think they should be able to drive up the hill. If we off-campus students don't want to park at the bottom and walk up, neither should the on-campus students have to.

-Jennifer More
Off Campus

I think that they could park up here if they want, but it would be nice if all of us off-campus students had first priority at parking (considering they live right down the hill.)

-Scott Houser
Off Campus

If I lived on campus and I had an early class, I'd drive too. Especially if the weather was bad or I had a long night "studying." I feel parking is first come, first serve.

-Robert Letcher
Off Campus

I think that it would be more convenient for off campus students to have the first priority. On the otherhand I think it should be open to all students whether they are on or off campus.

-Linell Reaves
On Campus

I feel it doesn't matter if residence hall students drive to class. I feel if they don't want to walk up the hill, especially for night classes, they have the same opportunity as off campus students. I drive up to class at night and I feel there should be more parking spaces.

-Jim Sickom
On Campus

I don't think that people who live on campus should be told that they can't drive up the hill. Parking is on a 1st come 1st serve basis. If residence hall students get to the top and find legal parking, they should be able to park there.

-Melissa Koehler
On Campus

I feel that there is no reason for Residence Hall students to drive up the Hill. There is not enough parking space as it is and if residence hall students drive then that only makes the parking situation worse.
