The Student Union Board (SUB) held their "Club Fandango - Best Buns Contest" on Thursday, September 6 in the Commons.

The heat from the wild college crowd and the base from the pounding music, provided by Safari Sam, created an outrageous atmosphere that prepared each individual for the unusual event to come. As the loud music continued to play the crowd danced, stomping and yelling for the contest to begin.

At 10:30 p.m., the crowd engulfed the stage; each individual scrambled to claim a good spot from which to view the contestants. The crowd waited impatiently. The bouncers (those big muscular guys from the Weight Lifting Club) stood around the stage as a boundary line between the contestants and the excited audience.

The hour that all had been waiting for brought forth nine beautiful ladies and nine handsome men who modeled their derriers to the hand clappin', head banging crowd.

The judges for the event then faced the complicated task of choosing which "butt" was the best. The two male models chosen were first place winner Mike Trip and second place winner Jason Ruch.
