

Intramural Sports Three on Three Volleyball Tournament

Jason Miller, Allen Nelson and Jerry Kilgore: Team Kix, did just that to their opponents as they breezed into the championship game with straight set wins over Derrick Havisrlak's Side Out and Angi Price's Three Short People, giving them the much wanted re-match with Kix for the overall championship. On the winning side in second round play, Kix toyed with the Three Short People using the short scrimmage as practice for the championship. Too much bump and dump for the Short People as Miller, Nelson, and Kilgore took turns setting and sending bullet like shots for winners as well as quality jump serves that were close to impossible to return.

The re-match between Kix and Side Out for the Penn State Gold was as hot as hot can get. Both sides put on a volleyball clinic with digs, bumps, saves and spikes never before seen in Intramural Volleyball play. Tourney favorite Side Out held a slim lead in the first two sets faltering while losing the first and stealing the second on Kix miscues. With the third and final set and no tomorrow in sight, the going got tough and the tough Kix got going. Super sets all by Kilgore made Canon spikes by Miller and Nelson look like a piece of cake. Three quick points by Side Out made things look interesting and lifted the score to 13-10, but the comeback try fell short and that would be as close as Side Out would get. Smelling victory and going for the jugular, two final patented set/spikes from Kix double Kilgore and Miller sent Side Out packing their bags while Kix took home the Penn State gold.

Intramural Bowling

The fall intramural two-person bowling league got underway October 26 with eight teams looking to strike some Penn State Hazleton gold. The pre-season picks are as follows: favored to go all the way are "The Strike Outs", Rich Hause and Pat Edmonds, and Cinderella bowlers Mickey and Minnie, Jason Miller and Angi Price. The league's dark horse is the team called, "Fortune Cookies" comprised of Chick Lazason and Scott Lieberman. Mark Zappe and Misty Flock, who call themselves, "10 Pin" are expected to be contenders. followed by Brady Liechty and Mike Zanette whose team is called the Rolling Bones. The league surprise is expected to be the duo of Jim Bonceek and Jim Sheema who together are called the "Infinites". The league's second surprise called "S&S Bowling Factory" is the pair of Joby Hilliker and Dper Kandar. The post season tournament will be held during the week of December first. Finally, the other team known as "The Other Team", Russ Owens and Bill Lucas, also known in the league as the "who are they?" team may very well prove to be the league spoilers.

Zoo-Crew Trips Blazers 70-66

The Zoo-Crew, led by Bobby Pugh's 22 points, tripped the upset-minded Blazers of Jim Warrington, 70-66, and with the win, took home the "A" 5 on 5 hoop title. If the Blazers were Cinderella, then definitely the Zoo-Crew were the the wicked witches, who avenged an over-time 1 point loss in regular season play, the only blemish on their 9-1 record. The Blazers also finished the '92 campaign at the 9-1 mark.

Close to five minutes went by before the Zoo-Crew carressed the mesh with the first points of the evening. The Crew would lead the entire evening, with single digits through the first quarter then running the score up to a baker's dozen after intermission. Half-time had The Crew leading 40-34. At the 9:45 mark of the second half, and with the Zoo-Crew ahead by 13, all was just about lost for the Blazers. With the Blazers down but not quite out, the Zoo just could not administer the knock-out punch. This allowed the Blazers to re-gain their composer with three uncontested scores by Surmick, Warrington and Fendrick. Suddenly, there was a game, as the Zoo-Crew's lead was cut to a mere six points. In the last minutes of play, a 3-point bomb by former H.H.S. star, Warrington, tied the game for the first time since the opening whistle. Both clubs exchanged 2-hoops apiece to make the score 66-all. With 32 ticks left on the clock, and the Blazers in possession of the ball with a chance to take the lead, a quick shot from Fendrick just tipped the orange steel and the Crew took the rebound all the way for a 68-66 lead. Two shots from the charity stripe by Schaeffer, with :03 remaining, sealed the four point Zoo-Crew victory. Joe Krevanis netted 15 for the winners, while Moisey and Scheffer adding 14 and 13 respectively. Four Blazers hit double digits in a losing cause with Warrington leading the way with 17. Surmich, Fendrick, and Jason Molri rounded out the four with 16, 14, and 10 each.

Fall 5 on 5 Hoops

Mafia claims "B" championship - Zoo-crew rolls to "A" title

Ed Chaescattie and Mafia defeated the likes of Brian Seiwel and his Gymrats, 64-58 to win the fall "B" hoop 5 on 5 championship. Mafia took the lead from the opening tap and never looked back. The bad boys of Chascattie also held a slim halftime advantage of 27-21. Midway through the second half, the Mafia ran their lead to 12 Points. Not ones to die quickly, three quick 3-pointers put the Gymrats back in contention. But, time was their enemy and the mini-comeback was too little, too late as the score see-sawed until the final buzzer.

Both clubs entered the championship with 5-5 records with the Gymrats having already beat Mafia during regular season play. The evening before saw the Gymrats pitted against Mike O'Donnell and The Rock Rolling, while Mafia breezed by Tony Weisser and Absolut. All-Everything, Scott Alansky, took scoring honors for the winners with 16 points. Brian Legutko added 13 more points, while John Connely added 12. Gymrat All-Im Brian Seiwel was high man for the evening with 21 biggies, nine of which coming via 3-pointers from downtown. Brian Crosby added another 16 and Aaron Verenda 13, in a losing effort. The Gymrats led in 3-pointers, 8-3, with Crosby adding four for the losers and Rusty Rang rings tops for the winners with two.
