The choice is up to you and there are a large number of places to select from. The best place to start is the O.T.I.S. office. Stop in and pick up an apartment guide to State College. Visit these places preferably before February, and look thoroughly into several different alternatives before contracting the one that best fulfills your needs.

Plectrum Rocks Commons

By Andrea L. Santer

Feet tapping and hands clapping were heard on Tuesday November 9, when P.S.H band "Plectrum," showed off their talent by holding their first gig in the commons.

The group devised its name "Plectrum" from flicking through the dictionary. They chose "Plectrum" because it means a small object used for plucking guitar strings, and obviously it fits to what they do. The members of the band are Chris George, lead guitar and vocals, Mike Byers, guitar/vocals, John Steinmann on the drums, and Dave Dephillips, bass. "Plectrum" practices together whenever they can. Some of the band's favorite songs are We're Big Grand Funks, Robert Johnson, Free, and Bad Company. The band also plays their own songs which Mike Byers writes himself.

The band put on a very entertaining performance. Mike Byers did a great job of keeping the audience involved. The band displayed an enormous amount of talent, both vocally and instrumentally. The support for "Plectrum," was reflected in the amount of students who turned up to see them perform.

When asked what the future holds for Plectrum and if they plan to stay together, Mike Byer replied, "It's up in the air."
